IN THE HEAT OF '89

Mrs. Doerzbacher and her daughter, Kelly Jo, were among those who participated in Kunkle Park Bicentennial Days.

Melinda Heinlein enjoys the fine summer weather at Kunkle Park.

Jennifer Lange heads the cymbal section consisting of Kerry Schindehette, Tammy Simpson, and Amy Bazella.

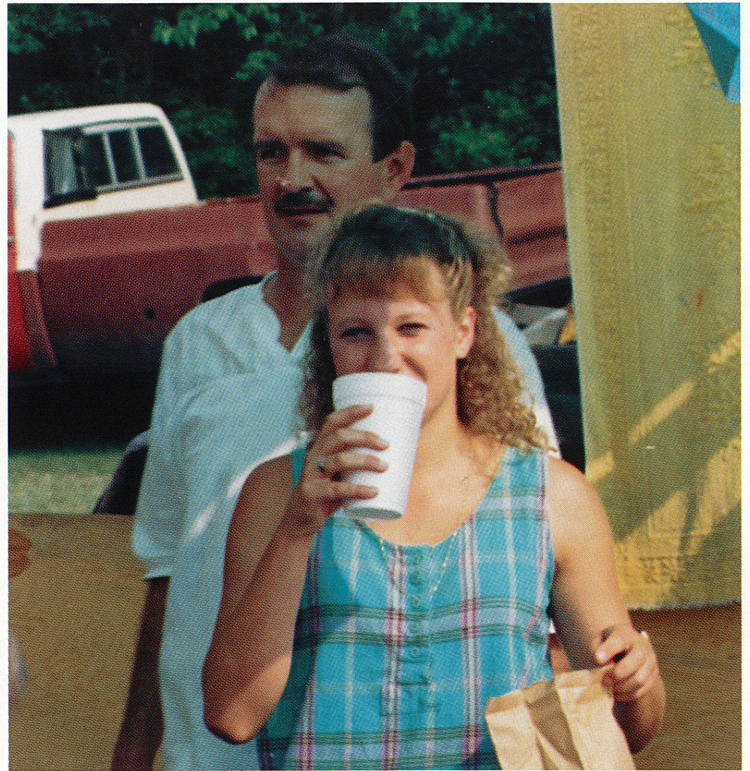

Blurred

The Cavalier Drumline rehearsed as they stepped into the Band Season with a Boom!

The football players lunged through another grueling practice.

Amy Bazella took a break to quench her thirst during the hot summer months.

The crowd anxiously awaited to see Steve Aulerich plunge into the Arctic waters.

A NEW DECADE

Remember all the times you splashed and slopped through the mud and leaves of the small wooded area between the Administration building and the lower cafeteria? Well, thanks to the senior class of '89, those days are over. Last year, the seniors made more than enough money from magazine sales to pay for senior activities. Extra money was used to pave a new walkway in early September. As senior Dan Jackson comments, "It's terrific, no more mud!!"

Another change that occurred at Kiski, however, may not be as beneficial. High school students are arriving at Kiski later than they did last year due to the new busing system. They sometimes miss announcements and upset the homeroom teachers. The students are being left off near the new Intermediate school, which forces them to walk farther than before, causing them to be late.

After years of waiting, the new intermediate school is now open to students. The school was originally built to hold 700 students, yet due to miscalculations, 82 more students were enrolled. Some students say that in the beginning, the ramps and stairs created confusion while changing classes. One student, Jason Klepac, 7th grader, comments that "It's so big and crowded, I got lost." (Just wait until they get to the High School!!)

As with every passing year, a new group of freshmen arrive at Kiski. Anticipating the crowds of people and the size of the school itself, they enter their first year here at Kiski not quite sure what to expect. It is not surprising that some students find themselves lost or late for class the first day. As freshman Rhonda Catchpole declares, "It's very, very big and exciting." Another student, Dana DiBiasio, comments that "It is a drastic change, but I like it."

As these freshmen step into the 90's, they have great expectations from Kiski and all that it has in store for them.

The new sidewalk, built with the help of the class of 1989, eliminates walking in the mud from the administration building to the gym.

A very new addition to the Kiski Campus is the intermediate school, a two-story building which is the home away from home for approximately 800 students.

Freshmen look very enthusiastic to be learning the Spanish language.

Although the new bus system seemed to be a hassle at first, students quickly adjusted.

With the new decade Aaron Hajel must learn to adjust his time for school work more wisely.

I N S I G H T

Fads go in and out, and as we step into the 90's there will be no exception. One can never go wrong in fashion with a pair of clean cut jeans cuffed at the bottom and a pair of "tennies". Vests, tie dye articles, peace symbols, stretch pants hidden under culottes, and oversized shirts quickly became the "funky" norm. It is the all American teenage look.

After lunch, many friends display their individual tastes in clothing.

TRY THIS ON FOR SIZE

Mr. Hunter takes a break from the usual suit and tie to go casual.

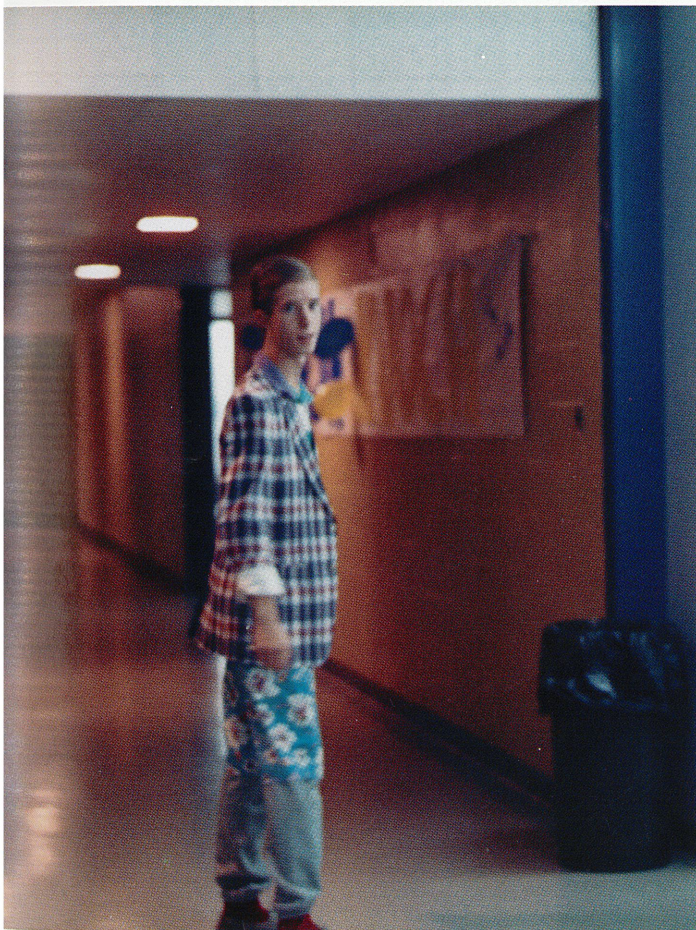

Lottie Morrison and a friend try to cool off in the hot sun.

Mrs. Musselman must be allergic to her mixed-up outfit.

Lynae Bentz sports her purple plaid pants.

Darin Ray turns to look at someone who is laughing at his crazy outfit.

Christa Gordish and Cassi Berarducci discuss the latest fads.

I N S I G H T

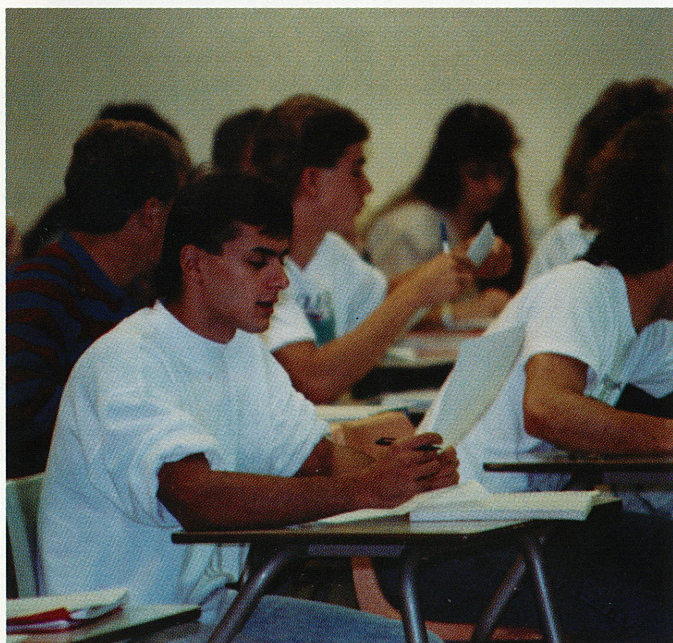

STRIVING FOR THE FUTURE

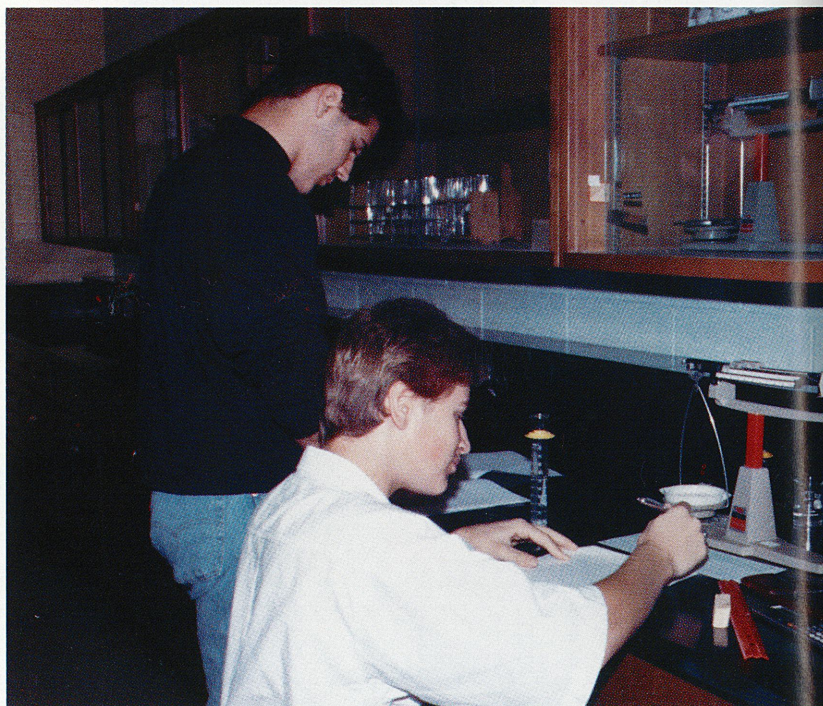

Calculus students gather to try to make some sense of this puzzling subject.

Campus photographers catch a sneak peek of Mr. Pipkins.

Pete Blanciak ponders the mysteries of the skies in one of Mr. Yajko's astronomy classes.

John Rollinger and Marc DeSantis take great care in conducting their experiment.

Juniors Jessie Kardos and Rachel Sgarlata are vigorously studying for a Physics test.

Students congregate in the court yard for a gab session.

KA freshmen make wide use of their activity period.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong
As they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging
Seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the
Debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you
Have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a
Bit-
Rest if you must, but don't quit.
Life is queer with it's twists and Turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many afellow turns about
When he might have won had he
Stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow-
You may succeed with another blow.
Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has to give up
When he might have captured the
Victor's cup;
And he too late when the night
Came down,
How close he was to the golden
Crown.
Success is failure turned inside out-
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close
You are,
It may be near when it seems far;
So stick to the fight when you're
Hardest hit-
It's when things seem worst that
You mustn't quit.

Christie Kaminski looks in awe at her skillful shot.

Justin Parke strives to make a winning goal.

Kayte Kralik receives the crown of the Westmoreland County Fair Queen.

On August 20th, the Westmoreland County Fair held its annual queen contest. This year, Kathleen Kralik, a senior at Kiski, was crowned as Westmoreland County Fair Queen. On winning this title, she said, "I was surprised and overwhelmed, and very pleased with my new achievement."

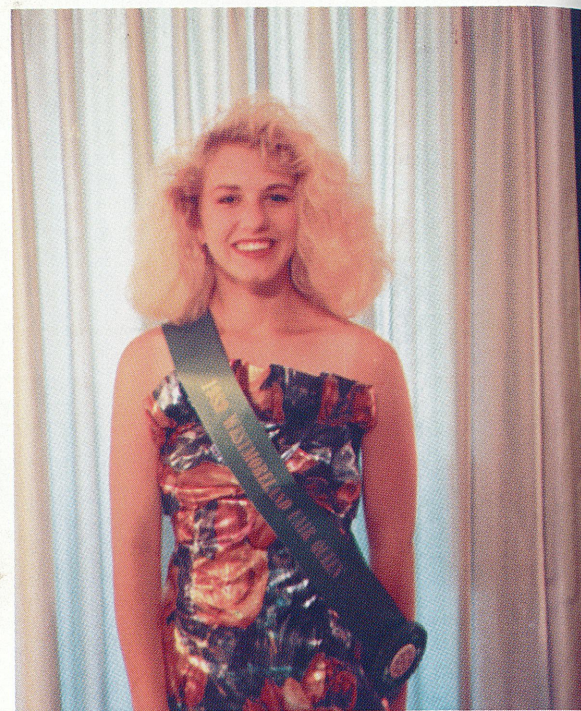

Kathleen was sponsored by the Beaver Run 4-H Club, which has belonged to for nine years where she takes part in the sewing department. This particular area teaches the art of making quality clothing. This summer, each girl in that project area, who belongs to a Westmoreland County 4-H Club, made a complete outfit and modeled it at a fashion show. There the outfits were judged by a panel of fashion consultants. Kathleen's outfit won a gold rosette and went on to the state competition at Penn State University.

She took part in a leadership project at Ligonier this past July, in which she counseled 8 to 12 year olds at a week long camp. Also, she is a Pennsylvania State 4-H Ambassador. This position gives Kathleen the opportunity to guest speak about 4-H at banquets.

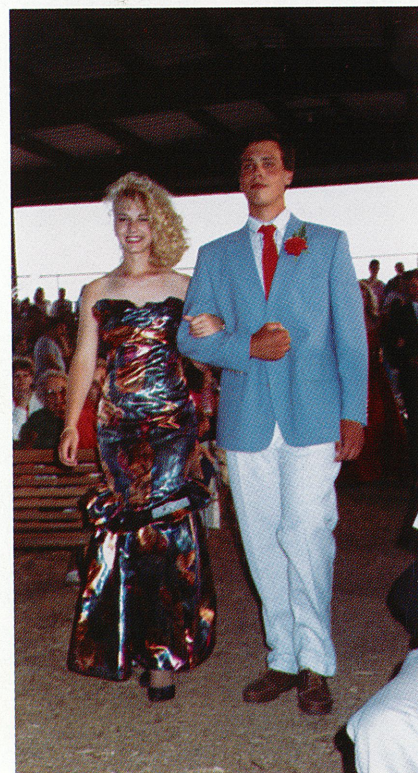

4-H is an organization for people between the ages of nine and eighteen that sponsors over 150 project areas. These areas include everything from teaching leadership skills and public speaking, to cooking, computers, and sewing.

As queen, Kathleen must "stay in the public eye" by attending various social functions with local business representatives and community service leaders. These functions deal with the promotion of Westmoreland County.

In January, Kathleen will represent Westmoreland County in the State Fair Queen Competition, in which there will be one representative from each of the 52 counties in Pennsylvania.

Kayte proudly smiles after accepting her title.

Kayte is admired by the audience.

OWN CELEBRITIES

Cassi receives her bouquet at the pageant.

Cassi shows her flowers and her winning smile.

Cassi wishes to thank her mother, father, brothers, and Liz Cebak for their support.

On Friday, September 22, Cassandra Marie Berarducci headed for the Howard Johnson's High-rise Hotel in Monroeville, the official site of the 1990 Miss Pennsylvania Teen U.S.A. Pageant.

To become an entrant in the Pageant, Cassi had to submit a brief resume and photograph to the Tri-State Headquarters. Of all who submitted applications, Cassi became one of the 97 girls chosen to compete.

"The stress and pressure before the competition was unbelievable because I'm not a very competitive person," Cassi commented. "But after putting so much time and hard work into preparing for the Pageant I gave it my all and found myself becoming very competitive."

After numerous hours of practice on Saturday and Sunday the girls were ready for the Finals Competition. During the finals the Top 15 girls modeled swimsuits and evening gowns, and also had a personal interview. Cassi was very "excited and honored" to have made it that far.

After these competitions the contestants were narrowed down to the Top 5 and Cassi and the other 4 finalists had a final interview while the judges tallied the girls scores.

The moment had finally arrived when Cassi was announced the 2nd runner-up to the title of Miss Pennsylvania Teen U.S.A.

Cassi will continue competing "not just to win, but also to relive the great experience, I could not express the excitement of the whole weekend."

COMMENTS ON KISKI

This year, feelings about Kiski were brought forth in interviews of the student body. Freshmen to seniors relayed opinions ranging from serious to whimsical.

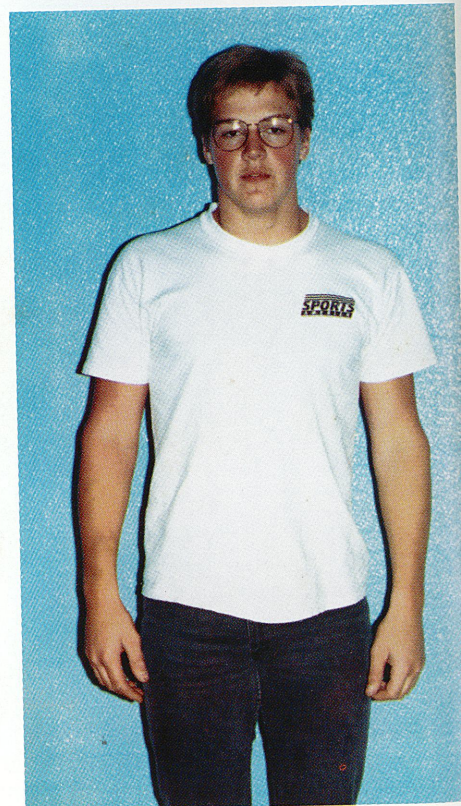

Heaven Baker has attended the Big K for four years. A dominant fixture in her memory was when she, "dropped a lunch tray in the cafeteria." Looking back on her time spent at Kiski, Heaven said, "People should be more friendly. Most of the teachers in this school are more than just teachers; they care." Of all the things at Kiski she cares about, Heaven treasures her friends the most.

Sean Horansky, a senior and member of Jazz Rock and track, had tremendous insight for the good and bad points of Kiski. Sean was most influenced by the various people he met here. He remarked, "There are some great people at Kiski, you just have to find out who they are. Most aren't obvious." However, Sean did feel that some changes were necessary. Citing discipline as one example, he said, "I'm a little bit too old to be hassled when I walk down the hall to the bathroom." For the most part, Sean has gained many things from attending Kiski, among these "friendships that will be hard to leave." Sean did remark, though, that the faculty and student body are "a little out of step."

Perhaps they should think about this statement and make sure their step into the 90's is in the right direction.

Junior Mike Halapin reminisced about his Kiski years and decided, "being with all my friends and being part of a great football team," are a couple of his fondest memories. "I feel I have done well with the academic and social aspect of school. I like Kiski the way it is. The teachers are very friendly and most are easy to understand." As an athletic figure Mike said "I enjoy the physical contact in football, and the thrill of going fast while skiing."

Shari Stewart, a junior, has some interesting ideas of Kiski. Her favorite things about the high school are, "The assemblies and clubs. Clubs keep you busy and they are a lot of fun. The teachers are very nice, and fair too. Most of all I like the friends I've made." Probably the only item Shari could find fault with is, "There are too many people here."

During his sophomore year, Jerry Faulk had some interesting views about Kiski life. In Jerry's opinion, "the cheerleaders" were the best things in the entire school. After hesitating, he decided to share his most embarrassing moment, "when my fly was down." However flippant, Jerry did have a serious side. One of his aspirations for his high school years was "to become one of the top wrestlers", a goal that takes a lot of dedication. With hopes such as these, Kiski students should be taking very strong steps into the 90's.

Tonya Webb, who has a unique viewpoint of Kiski High, feels that "getting the grades I need to go to Georgetown University and to make head cheer-leader my Senior Year is what I want to accomplish. I feel that more time in the morning and in between classes, with no gym or pool would benefit the school. My most embarrassing moment at Kiski is when my friends told this boy all these things I said about him."

This year Kiski encountered a set of triplets, an event we are not familiar with. Eventhough they had diverse ideas and outlooks, being freshmen still felt the same bewildering. Mandi Paulet says, "there are a lot of different people here and I enjoy study halls." Chad loves the fact that he, "doesn't have to see his sisters as often." All three agreed on what they like the least, "so much homework!" Their first day was easy, although Kelli said, "I did look for the elevator!"

On being a Freshman at Kiski, Kenna Magness said: "If there is one word to sum up my first year at Kiski, it surely won't be insipid. Actually, it's quite interesting out here. Everyone scares you and tells you these horribly gruesome stories about how extremely hard and treacherous it is! I'll admit there are days where you feel like a three-legged ballerina but everybody feels outta place somewhere, at sometime in their lives. At Kiski, I haven't felt outta place yet, except for those few times I spent looking for an elevator, which I haven't found."

STUDENTS FROM ABROAD

Two of the foreign exchange students attending Kiski this year are junior Alejandro Fuentes and sophomore Maria de Lourdes Vieyra.

Foods, biology, and two English classes are among the things in his schedule. Alejandro is extremely grateful for the patience of all the teachers. Kiski people are what he likes best, and he feels they're sincere and overwhelmingly nice.

While here, Alejandro plans "to study diligently, play soccer, basketball, and soak in many American customs." American football and the cold weather are two major differences between here and home - Monterrey, Mexico.

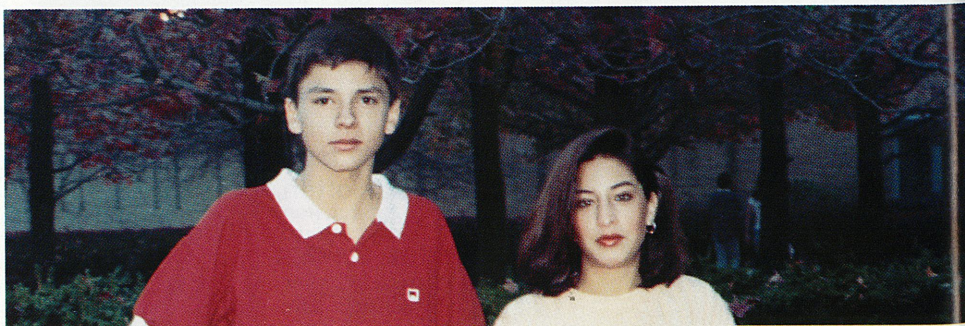

Along with Alejandro, Maria de Lourdes Vieyra is also a new face at Kiski this year. As an exchange student from Mexico, Maria is excited to be here and eager "to learn English." The courses she takes range from Chemistry and Art I to Spanish. To sum up Maria's thoughts of Kiski: "The people are nice to me and it is a lot different here than in Toluca, which is so tiny."

Alejandro shows his tremendous enthusiasm for attending Kiski Area.

Maria de Lourdes is, "amazed at the friendly people she has encountered at Kiski."

Alejandro y Maria express their excitement for getting their picture taken. Buena suerte, Alejandro y Maria!

Producing the yearbook is a tremendous job. Executive, production, and literary staffs make up the main body which brings the whole CAMPUS together. This memento is a result of individual time and effort as well as teamwork. What makes it even more special is that it is completely financed by us through funds raised from selling donuts, business advertisements, student messages, parent patrons and senior class contributions. Captured between these covers are our hopes, ambitions, triumphs and most of all, our friends. As we step into the 90's we will look back on our wonderful years at Kiski.

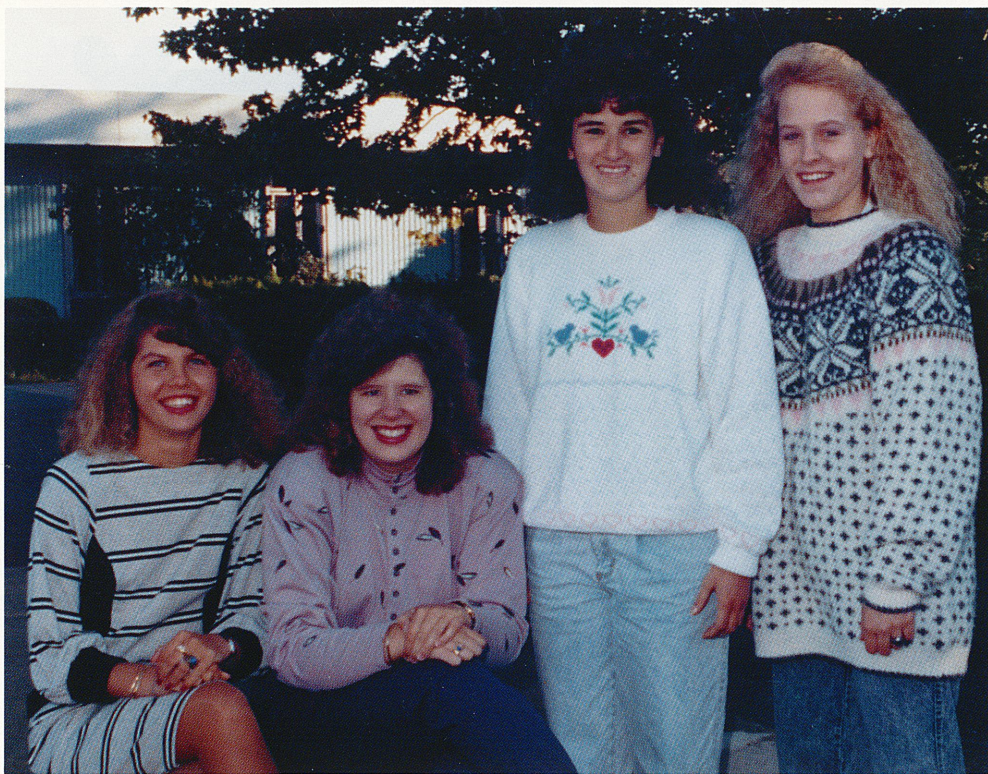

Campus yearbook photographers are Kari Arndt and Scott Veselicky.

This year's Campus Executive Staff worked especially hard to create the best yearbook ever. The members of the Executive Staff are Christa Gordish, Business Manager; Diane Riffer, Co-Editor; Shannon McGuire, Editor-in-Chief; and Megan Blackham, Co-Editor.

Mrs. Linda Hill, the new Campus advisor, enjoys working with the yearbook staff.

This year's Junior Editors consist of Michele Klingensmith, Candy Aikins, Lisa Ceraso, and Stacey Kardos.

Scott Veselicky, one of the staff photographers, snaps another exciting action shot.

In charge of the literary staff, Lolly Parry, Editor; and Mike Cassell, Co-Editor, spend many long hours creating the imaginative stories for the yearbook.

Diane Riffer and Christa Gordish work feverishly to put the Campus together.

SENIORS

When we arrived at Kiski four years ago, we were like any other freshman class, both excited and insecure. During our first assembly at the "BIG K", Mr. Nicholas assured us that our years at Kiski would go very quickly. Being freshman, we didn't believe him; being seniors, we realize he was right after all.

We are finally considered the adults at Kiski and the role models for the underclassmen. It was not easy to earn that respect. However difficult it may be, we had to learn how to make our own decisions and correct our mistakes. Also, we had to show the other students that we were able to take control whenever necessary.

Now that our last few days together are upon us, we will cherish these times more than ever. Those special events, like the prom and senior banquet will, of course, be remembered. But most of all, we will remember our friends who stuck by us through the bad times, along with the good times.

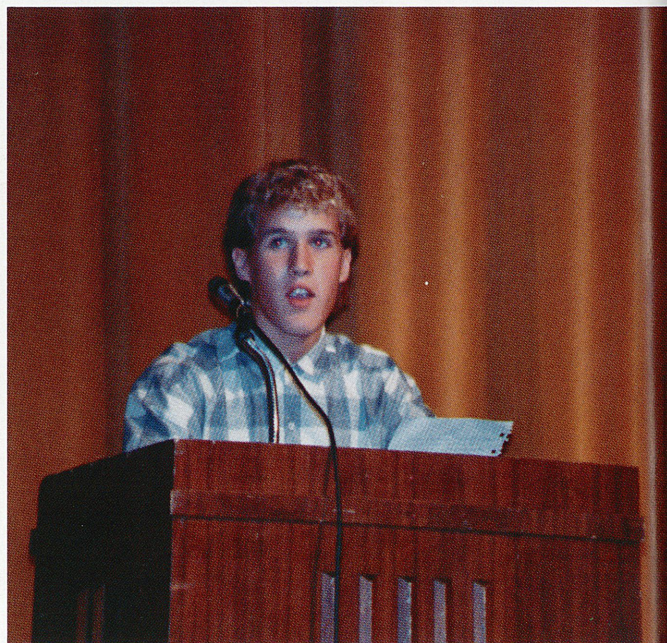

No matter what career choices we will make, Kiski will have played the biggest role in helping us decide. One thing is certain, Kiski had given us seniors what it takes to step into the 90's.

The class officers of the 1990 Senior Class are: Joe Gray, Secretary; Dean Byers, Vice-President; Susan La Russe, President; and Dan Carbonetti; Treasurer.

While Melisa McKay gives her presentation, Scott Bowman and Tom Litz are being mesmerized by her words.

Looking out at his peers Troy Parks seeks the support of the senior class.

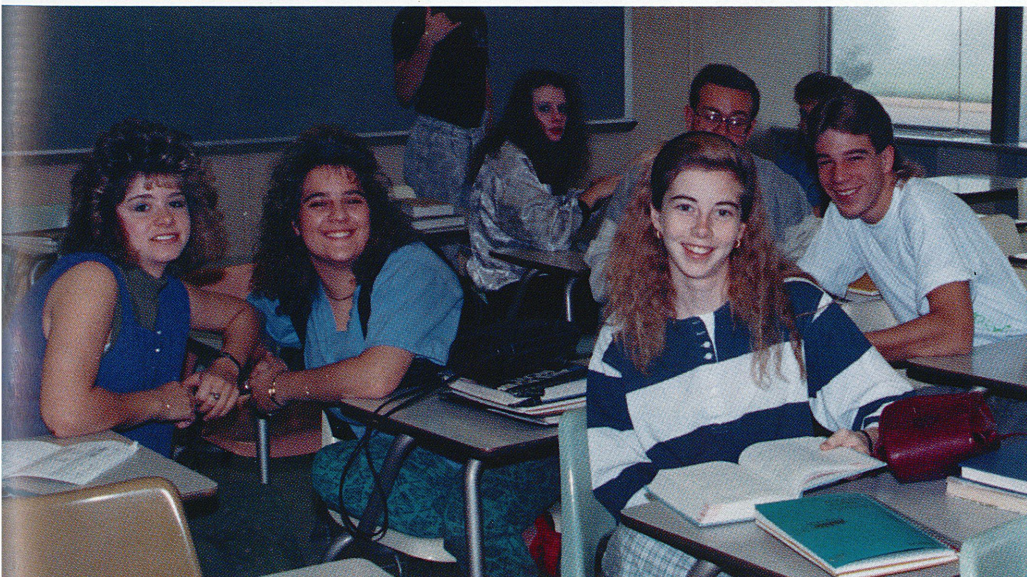

Larissa Souzer enjoys a delicious donut she bought from the yearbook staff.

Jennifer Henry takes a relaxing stretch on a short break at Band Camp.

As a stress reliever, Lolly Parry does a hand stand.

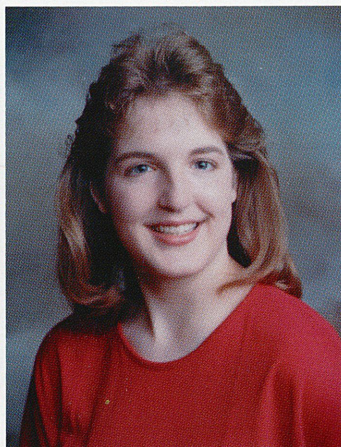

Homeroom 413 is ready and willing to get their picture taken.

Homecoming

Moments To Remember

Homecoming is always a very special time for seniors, and this year was no exception. Six of Kiski's most attractive girls were chosen as the Homecoming Court. The Court and their escorts consisted of Cassi Berarducci, and escort Tim Howard; Heather Heid and Jeff Davis; Stacie Molnar and Sean Horansky; Gina Policicchio and Jeff Pollick; Heather Townsend and Tom Litz; and Amy Vavra with her escort P.J. Kuruc.

When the September 29th game reached half-time, the court, along with their escorts, walked nervously toward the center of the field. As the crowd quieted the announcement was finally made. "Kiski Area's 1989-1990 Homecoming Queen is Heather Heid!" David Field roared with applause as the crown was placed on Heather by last years Homecoming Queen, Heidi Orvosh.

"I was both surprised and excited. The memory will last forever," was Heather's reaction to being voted Queen. "It was very special to me because of the support and friendship the girls on the court gave each other. Just being on the court was an honor in itself.

It has always been the tradition of Kiski that cheerleaders, majorettes, and colorguard members not be eligible for nomination onto the court. This was the first year that the rule was lifted. Gina Policicchio, who was a member of the Court, is a cheerleader.

The smiles of the colorful Homecoming Court show their enthusiasm.

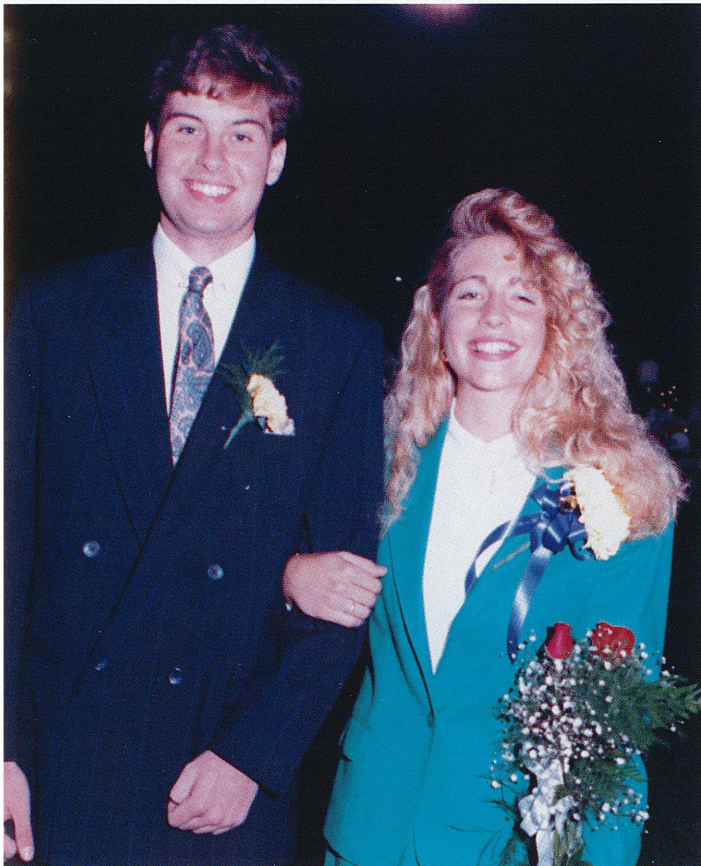

Each of the girls display that competition does not change their friendships.

Massi Beraducci flashes a smile to the camera along with escort, Tim Howard.

Waiting for the big moment, Heather Heid nervously awaits with escort, Jeff Davis.

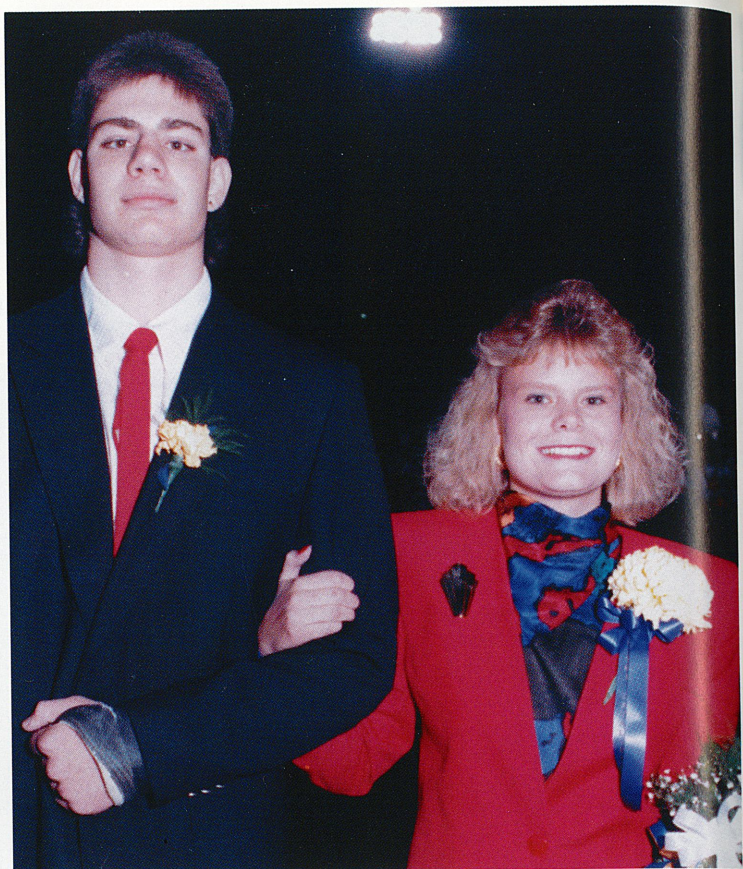

With an enthusiastic look, Stacie Molnar and escort Sean Horansky express their anticipation.

Heather Townsend and her escort Tom Litz wait with eager expectations.

A happy Amy Vavra stands with her proud escort Patrick Kuruc.

Some of the members of the Homecoming court anxiously await halftime when the Queen will be crowned.

Heidi Orvosh, former queen, gives the new queen Heather Heid a warm hug.

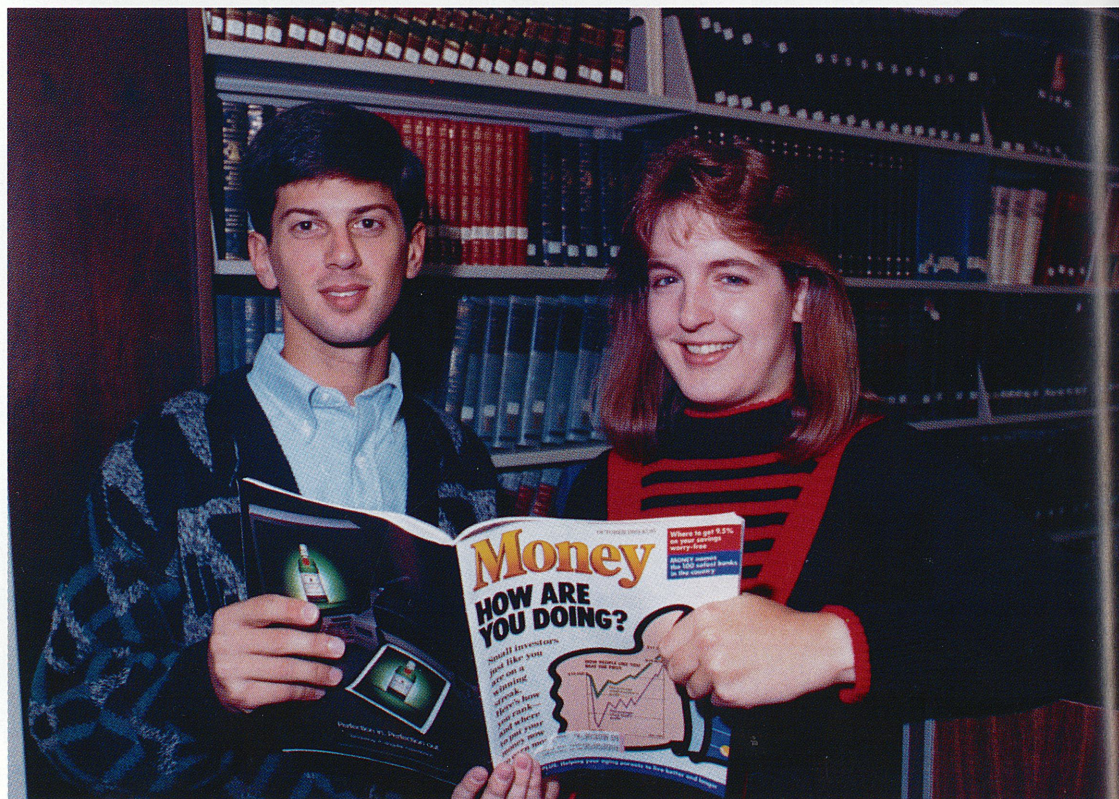

Cassi Beraducci sincerely congratulates her best friend Heather Heid on becoming the new queen.

EXCEPTIONAL SENIORS

The Senior Class of 1990 stepped into this year faced with the difficult task of selecting the Exceptional Seniors. After pondering for a few days, the seniors chose who they felt were the most outstanding in each category. These categories ranged from attractiveness to intelligence, from talent to humor. Although each senior is special in his own way, these select few stand out among the faces in the crowd. Each student chosen should feel honored that they were recognized as "exceptional" by their classmates.

MOST POPULAR: Brandon Wilson, Cassi Berarducci

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED: Jim Blayden, Erica Alliston

SHYEST: Caryn Holupka, Dave Sampson

FRIENDLIEST: Troy Parks, Stacie Molnar

MOST TALENTED INSTRUMENTALLY: Andy Wolfgang, Melissa McKay

BEST DRESSED: Susan LaRusse, Sean Horansky

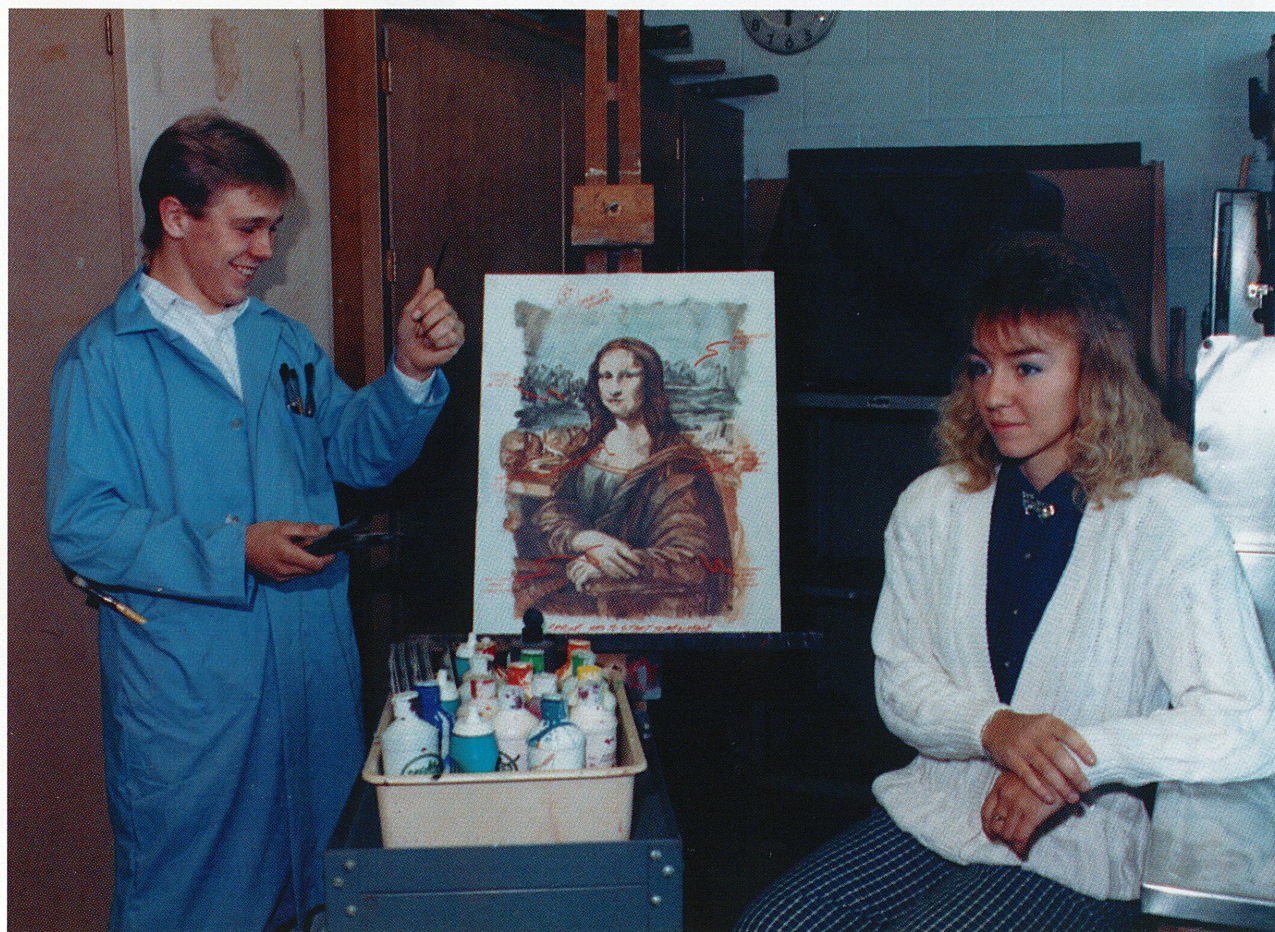

PRETTIEST EYES: Heather Heid, Scott Bowman

MOST ATTRACTIVE: Gina Policicchio, Dan Carbonetti

CLASS COUPLE: John Cunningham and Diane Riffer

MOST CREATIVE: Jeff Pollick and Melissa Altman

MOST ATHLETIC: Kim Gourley, Scott Wilson

MOST TALENTED VOCALLY: Jennifer Harnish, Corey Caugherty

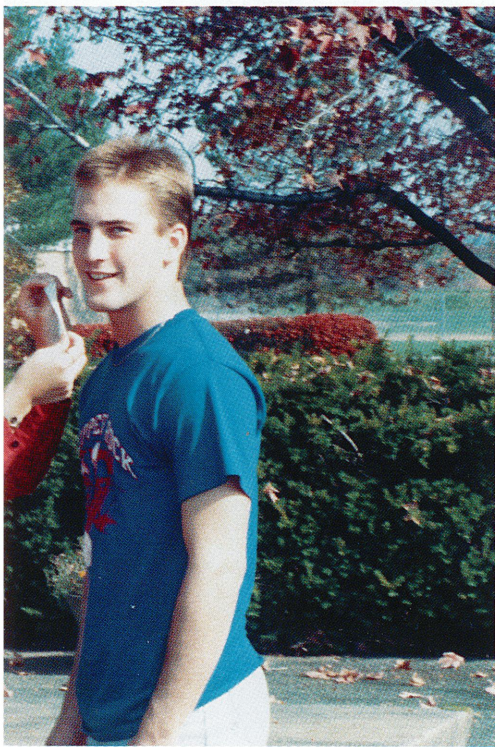

BIGGEST FLIRT: Jody Woodward, Mike Mills

MOST TALKATIVE: Michelle Jackson, Mike McNulty

MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT: Laura Stange and Joe Gray

CLASS CLOWN: Tony Passerelli and Tracy McCoy

KISKI'S PRIDE IS BACK

Who rocks the house? The Cavs rock the house! . . .

Tracy McCoy is going ape over the homecoming game.

The Pride Club shows their enthusiasm during the pep assembly.

Kiski's student body shows the Cavs their support for a victory.

Tony Passarelli is the heart of the pride club.

KA tutors are amused at Justin Parke's ravenous appetite.

"To be or not to be" that is the question Susan LaRusse asks herself as she is practicing her Shakespearean skills.

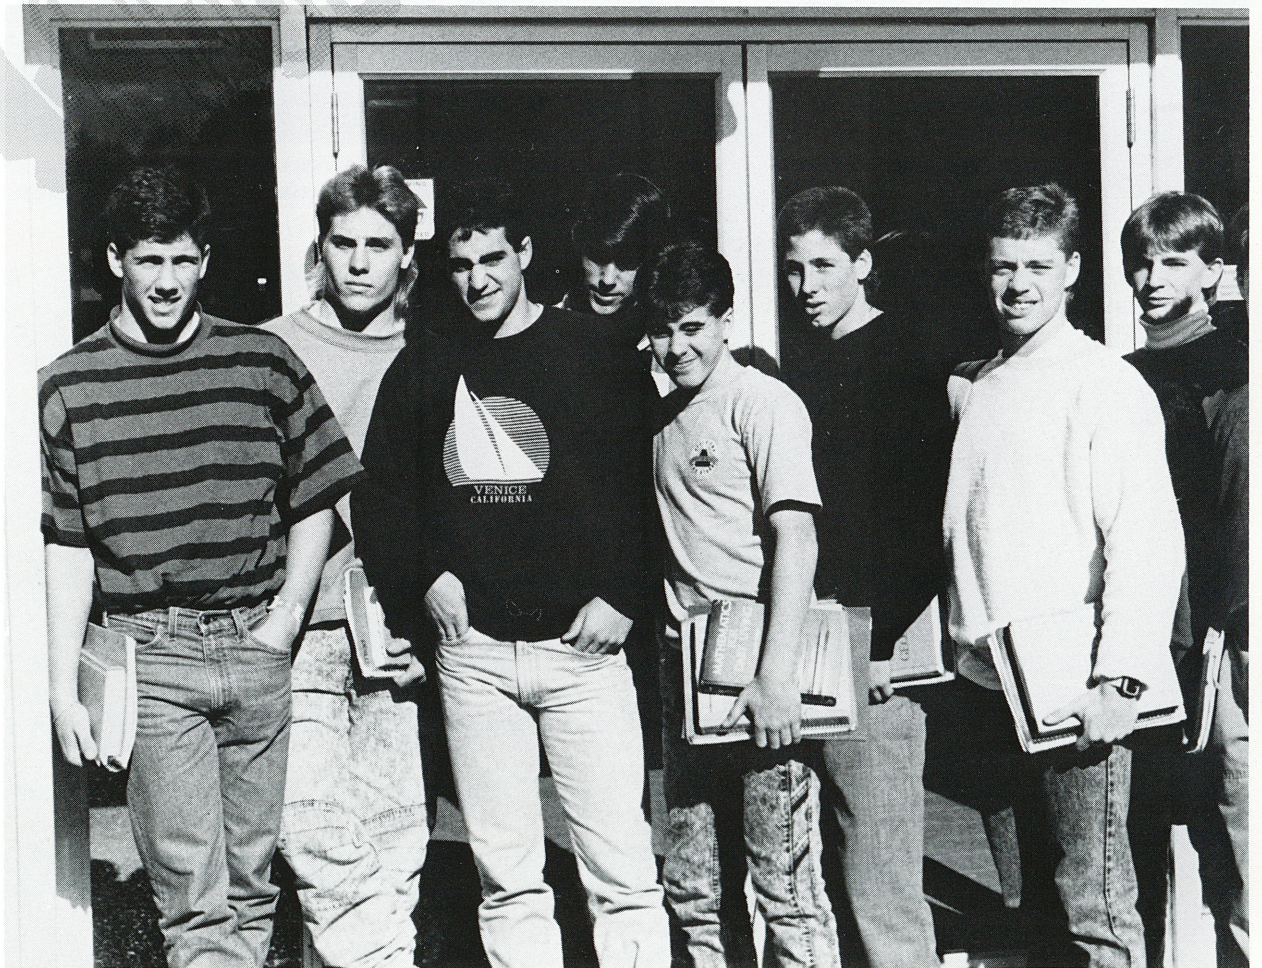

Regina DePaoli strolls around the campus in a state of awe.

Laura Stange, Kim Miska, and Jim Smail learn a useful skill; typing.

As the class of 1991 stepped into the new decade, they had several events to look forward to. These included receiving class rings, selling candy to aid in funding the prom, working on the Christmas Telethon, and preparing for their future. Club activities, sports, and music also kept them extremely busy. It is clear that this year's junior class is ready to take on the responsibility of being seniors.

Mike Toy and Fran David smile in relief that the complexities of Trigonometry can be forgotten until the next day.

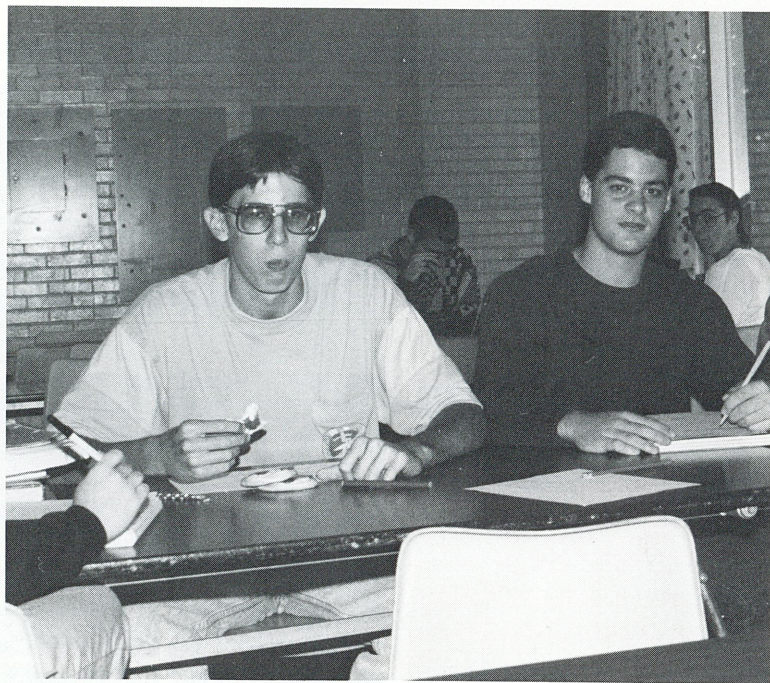

Fine leadership is displayed by the Junior class officers: Jennifer Pike, Treasurer; Chuck Heinle, President; Jim Azinger, Vice-President; and Jeff Walton, Secretary.

Agonizing over her Spanish project, Shari Stewart makes time to briefly flash a smile.

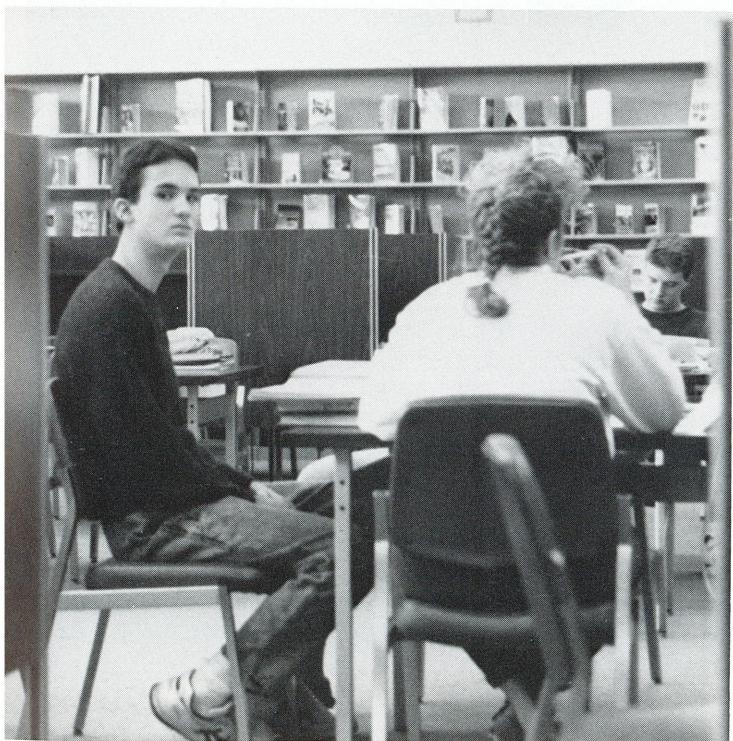

Leather Walker and Beth Cable begin their day of selling yearbooks with smiles.

Shane Filer and Marshall Barclay enjoy donut day sponsored by the yearbook.

As they started out as Freshmen, they weren't sure of what to expect from the "Big K", but as they step into the 90's, the Sophomore class feels at home in Kiski's halls and classrooms. As the year progresses they will be making many decisions like choosing their class ring, which symbolizes their memories. Students also begin to take part in more clubs, extra curricular activities and sports. In only two years that final happy day of graduation will arrive. Until then the sophomore class will carry on Kiski's tradition for others to follow.

Jason Troilo waits for help from a teacher.

FRESHMEN

Freshmen this year experienced the same doubts that most students just arriving at Kiski face. However, as the weeks progressed, this year's ninth grade class became more comfortable with their surroundings. They met many new friends, began to get involved in clubs and sports, and learned that there really is no elevator by room 401. After successfully completing their first year at "The Big K", they step into the 90's with no problem in meeting the high standards set by the preceding classes.

The freshmen class began their high school years by electing Rich Kardos, Treasurer; Gina Camilli, President; Scott Cignetti, Vice-President; and Mike Dentzel, Secretary; as their officers.

Jason Zanotti realizes that it is hard to "step into the 90's" on one foot.

Sara Shupe watches as Mandy Querio cuts Jodi Swanderski's hair.

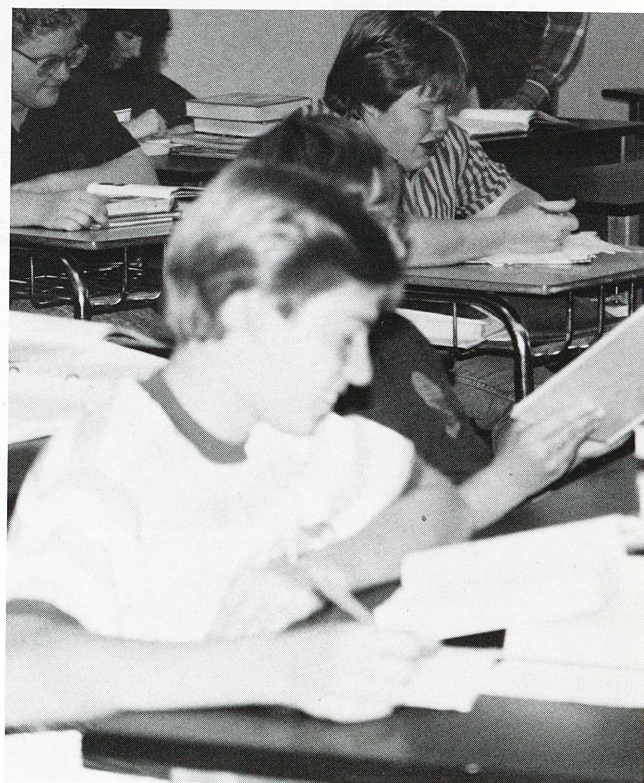

Obviously these students are extremely enthusiastic about their work.

DRUG-FREE KISKI

Trish Raschiatore and friends wait to release their "Drug Awareness" balloons.

Across the nation, students displayed ribbons declaring the motto "my choice . . . drug free" for Drug Awareness Week. The Student Council at Kiski, with the help of Mr. Israel, established Red Ribbon Campaign during the week of October 23.

Kiski decided to get into the act by passing out red ribbons. The Student Council members were given red balloons on which messages of encouragement were written. On October 25, Drug Awareness Day, at approximately 1:00 PM, an outside assembly was conducted. Every student was ushered out into the circle in front of the school, where Mr. Israel gave a speech. After he finished, all the balloons were released to spread the concern of drugs in our society today.

Diana Kaufman, Jennifer Anguilli, and Becky Stanek help promote this monumental day.

Tonya Webb and Brandi Waugh deliver balloons to Student Council members.

The Best Of The Best

Teacher Of The Year

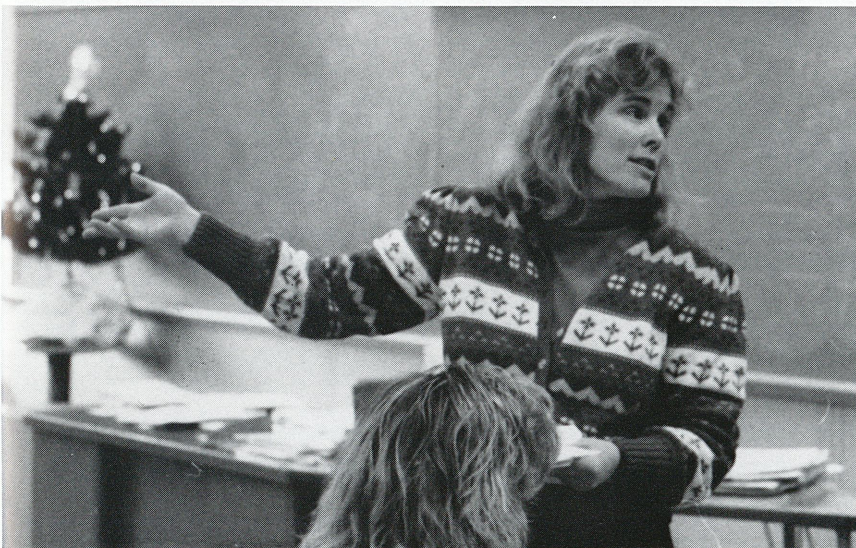

Mrs. Musselman, one of the finest at Kiski.

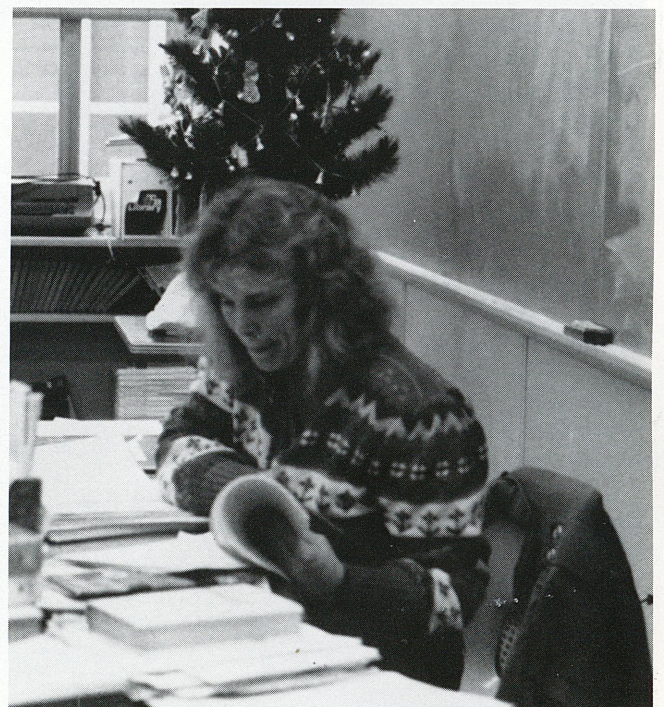

Mrs. Musselman, teacher of the year for 1988-89, decided to be a teacher because of her love for children. She attended Wenison University in Granvill, Ohio and earned a degree in speech and communication with a minor in English.

Past and present English students agree that Mrs. Musselman conducts a class that is never dull. Because of her uniquely imaginative methods, her classes are relaxing, candid, and very informative. Leigh-Ann Kardos, a former student, remembers that "Mrs. Musselman is willing to take a chance to help her students develop an interest for learning." One of her current students, Steve Dudzik, feels students can express themselves freely during her class. When asked about her teaching methods, Mrs. Musselman stated "I rely on the opinions of my students to influence my teaching style. If something doesn't get the point across, I change it."

The 88-89 senior class thanks Mrs. Musselman for all her dedication.

"Romeo, Romeo where fore art thou Romeo . . ."

Mrs. Musselman's hard work benefits her students.

HELP Is HERE

Are you confused or in trouble? Do you need someone simply to listen? At Kiski, there is a committee of teachers, counselors and administrators who have been trained at St. Vincent College to help students with personal problems. The Educational Support Team, headed by Mrs. Ruth Filer, meets once a week to discuss confidential situations.

Helping young people cope with their problems rather than running from them is the team's main goal. If the EST cannot make a breakthrough with a student's problem, the case may be referred to Mrs. Donna Falcon, the St. Vincent representative.

Miss Hill, the team's secretary said, "Many students are not aware that this help is available, and as a result may not get the attention needed."

CAREER DAY

Mr. Anthony Nicholas and Mr. John Ceraso give a warm welcome to the Career Conference speakers.

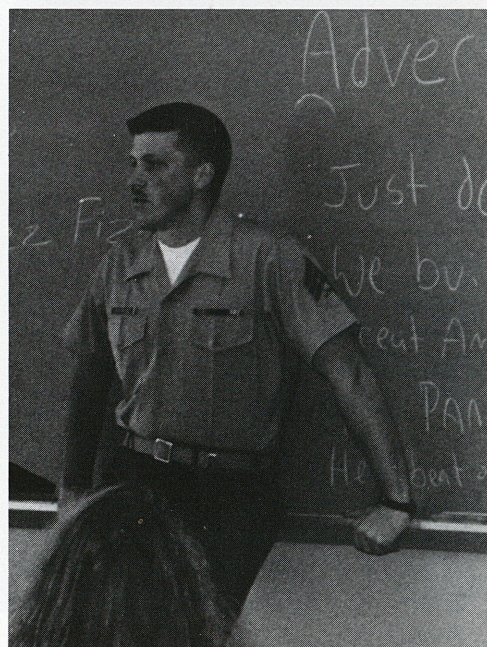

Two conference speakers sign in as Mr. Dennis Dupstadt greets another.

Career Conferences which took place November 17 of this year, was brought together by senior counselor Mr. Ceraso. Forty-seven speakers attended the sessions. The most popular conferences were engineering, education, and law. These gave students the opportunity to explore diverse career fields. Derek Mull, a junior, feels that these conferences "aid in the decision of planning a future."

Two Conference speakers discuss how they will present their career information to the students.

One Conference speaker captivates his young audience with a story from his life—his career.

Where There Is Music

The Concert Choir is made up of students in grades eleven and twelve. This year was very successful for the choir members. Not only did they have an excellent Christmas concert, but they also performed well in their spring concert. This concert was also memorable because it was the first time that choir members performed in their new robes. The students in the Concert Choir worked hard, and it certainly showed in their performances. Being part of this group, however, teaches the students more than just how to sing. Jen Pike, a junior member of the Choir feels that "singing with the Concert Choir has been a good experience because it has taught me how to work closely with a large group of people, and it has made singing and performing more enjoyable."

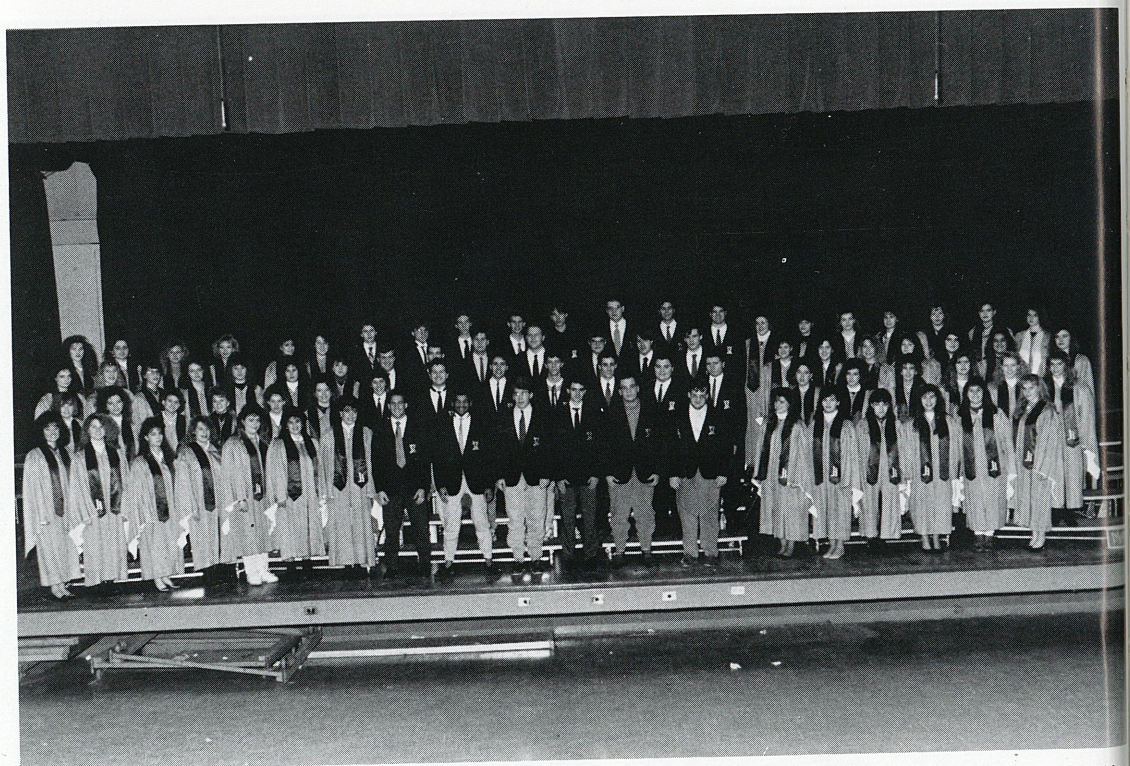

Mixed chorus, which is composed of sophomores, showed their wonderful talents all through the year. A Christmas and spring concert were two projects that let their enthusiasm free.

Freshmen at Kiski were able to pursue their musical interests. One way they did this was by joining the Ninth Grade Chorus. This chorus gave students a chance to become accustomed to Mr. McClelland's teaching procedures and they became accustomed to singing in a large group. After performing in the Ninth Grade Chorus, the students are ready to become members of the famed Cavalier Choir.

Seventeen students, along with others in the A-K Valley attended a two day competition at Penn Trafford. Here these talented vocalists proved that much effort brings success. Upon completing this county competition, two students from Kiski advanced to District Chorus. Jennifer Harnish and Corey Caugherty had to submit applications and recommendations in order to qualify. Another large factor in their selection was their performance at County Chorus. Both competitions were learning experiences and gave members the opportunity to make new friends.

Jazz Rock

The Jazz Rock ensemble is a group of exceptionally talented singers. Under the direction of Mr. John McClelland, Jazz Rock practiced every Activity Period in order to produce the best vocal group possible. Throughout the year, Jazz Rock performed at various school functions such as the Senior Citizens Banquet and Freshman Orientation. After these performances, the members of the Jazz Rock knew that the talent they displayed was appreciated and admired.

Now Hear This

The members of Now Hear This are Tom Lenox, Scott Bowman, Corey Caugherty, and Jeff Brown.

"Now Hear This . . ." is a powerful new musical force in the A-K Valley. Its members are seniors Scott Bowman and Corey Caugherty, and juniors Tom Lenox and Jeff Brown. This group has only been together for a year, but they already have performed at many different places. They have had several a capella performances at or involving the high school, including the Christmas Telethon, Homecoming Night, and at the Intermediate School dedication. They have also represented the Kiski Area choirs with a solo at the Westmoreland County Chorus Festival. Their original music has been well received at local performances at Westmoreland Mall and Brazz and Co. Recently, they have been concentrating on producing new songs with the help of a local musician. "Now Hear This . . ." is also stepping into the 90's with plans of recording a demo tape. From forming this group, the members feel that their friendship has grown stonger. "We know we can depend on each other for anything."

Jennifer Harnish takes time out from her chorus practice to smile for the camera.

All year practices were a major characteristic of the Cavalier Marching Band. The most strenuous time for the band was during the two weeks of Band Camp. Spectacular results of their dedication were observed at many competitions. The Band took first place in all specialty areas at the Eastern Regional Competition at West Virginia University. The title of "Best in State" was earned at the PFCJ Competition at East Allegheny High School, and a second place title was earned in the Mid-Eastern Regional Competition in Cincinnati, Ohio. The most important event of the year was the Grand Nationals, held at the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis, Indiana. It was here that they ended their season, ranked fifth in the nation. Mr. Scott Koter was very proud.

The Languages Of Love And Ambition

French

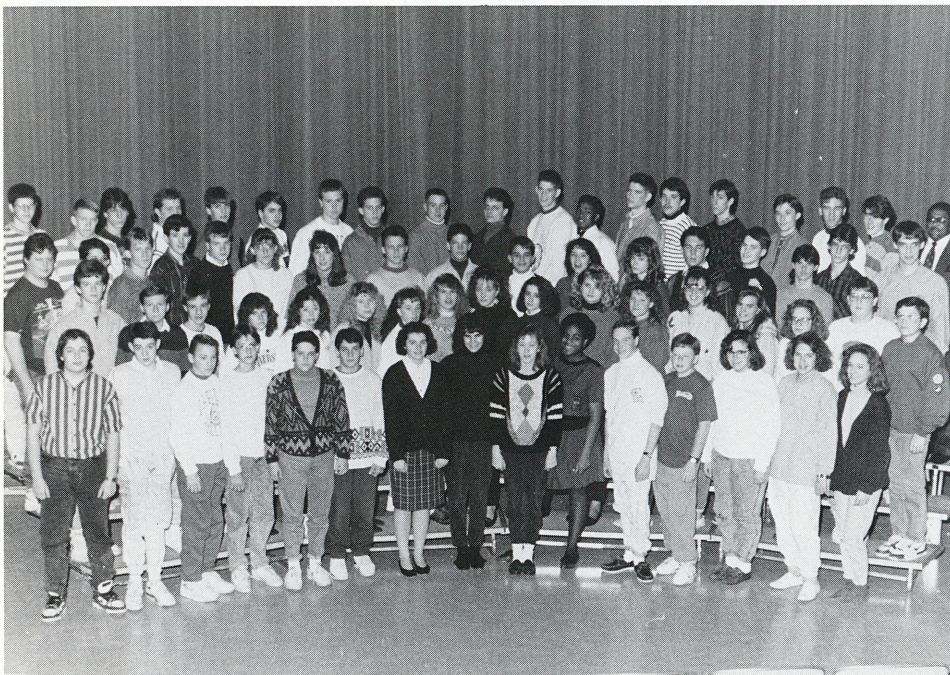

Thanks to Madame Lois Baun, Kiski has its own French society. As adviser of the club she instills french culture as well as a good understanding of the language to the members. A dinner banquet with cuisine created by club members is an annual event. Another favorite activity of the French Club is to watch Luky Luke films.

German

Deutsch, or German, is a popular language at Kiski. During club meetings, students tried to grasp the language through vocabulary, cultural background, and dialogue exercises. To better understand German holidays, students would sample authentic cuisine, music, and literature. In recognition of their hard work some students participated in the foreign language competition at Slippery Rock University and some took part in the Humanities Day at the University of Pittsburgh, at Greensburg this past spring.

Spanish Newspaper

¿Que Pasa? is a unique spanish newspaper devised by a diligent staff. Especially for those taking the language, it is entirely written in spanish entailing a variety of topics such as sports, horoscopes, music and much more. Mary Rager, editor, said, "Each issue gets better as we go along. We always have new ideas." It is a great opportunity for students to better their Spanish writing skills and provides a source of learning and entertainment.

Our Leaders Of Spirit

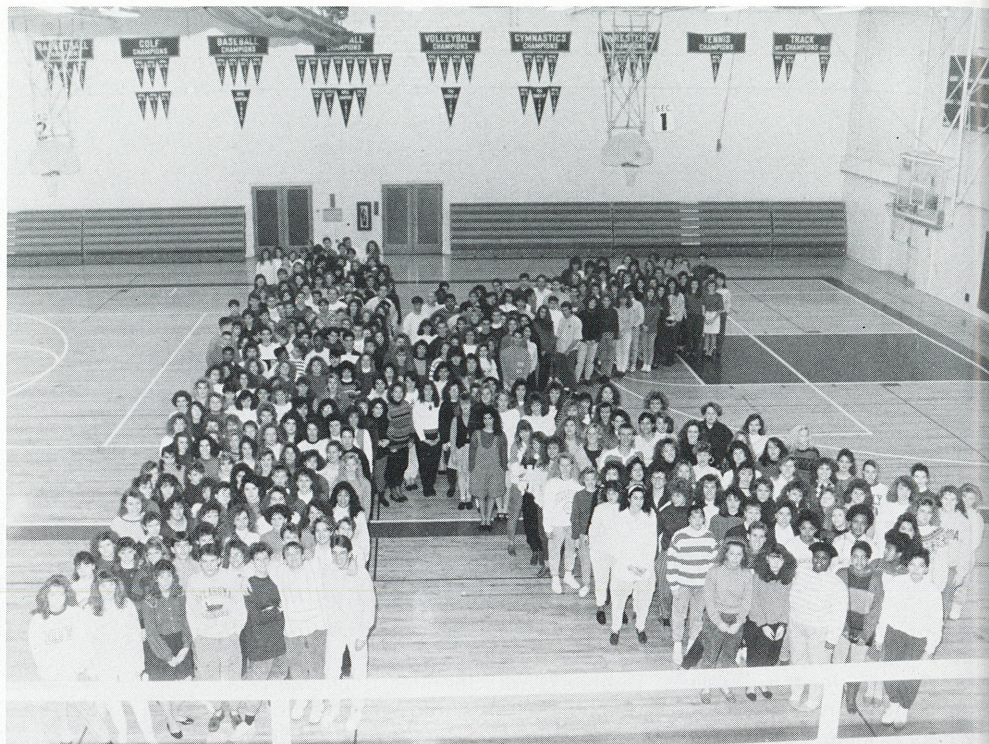

Colorful banners in the corridors, spirit weeks, and sweatshirt days all furthered our Kiski Pride! Tony Pasarelli, President of the club, could be seen at sporting events like football games, wrestling matches, and basketball games. Kiski Pride gets students riled up and cheering for our athletic victories.

Tracy McCoy displays her unique humor.

Face painting was just one of the Pride club's activities.

Some of the Kiski Pride members parade around town to spread their spirit.

Dance Club

One of Kiski's new club programs this year was the Dance Club. This energetic group was collaborated by Greg Balla and Kimberly Clark. During any free time that they had, this coordinated group had exhausting practices. The Dance Club made a video for the Christmas Telethon and performed at the Senior Citizens' Banquet.

Telethon

At Christmas time, Kiski's Annual Telethon was held. It's purpose is to raise money for needy families in the Kiski Valley. Organized entirely by the Telethon committee, the project would not have happened without sponsor Max Israel. It is broadcasted and taped by the Audio Visual Club from the K-Mart Plaza. This year $8,000 was raised by the caring students.

Photography

As we step into the 90's a new club arrived at Kiski. Mr. Larry Dudzik, sponsor of the photography club, enjoys sharing his expertise. Enthusiastic students learned basic camera functions, special lighting and lens techniques, film processing, darkroom procedures and much more. It gave members the opportunity to express themselves in a unique way while sharpening their skills.

The Art Of Acting

Art Club

Valentine wonderlands, Christmas scenes, face painting, exhibits for elementary school open houses, and backdrop design and construction for the drama club were major projects of the Art Club. Supervised by Mr. Jack Jewart, this creative crew utilized classroom knowledge and natural talent and gave their all. "We're doing what we enjoy, and that's what makes it so great!"

Drama Club

The Drama Club was very active this year. The group participated in many activities including the production of a play and helping with the telethon. The production of the female version of the "Odd Couple" was their main accomplishment this year. The play was directed by Ms. Regina Wichrowski along with student directors Stacey Hiles and Kathy Moro. Overall, the production was a great success, and the Drama Club will have many more accomplishments in the years to come.

National Honors Society

The National Honor Society recognizes outstanding students who are selected by a panel of teachers. Grades, activities, good character, service, leadership and recommendations are reviewed for initiation. During the year they sponsor several holiday coffeehouses. In April a candlelight ceremony is held in induct new members.

Gifted Forum

Beginning in their sophomore year, these bright students took part in excellerated classes. Gifted Forum involves all of the departments, but History is the most active. Once a month, gifted history students attend the World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh to hear lectures on topics such as Drug Enforcement, Polish relations and Glasnost.

The World Is Full Of Numbers

Math Club

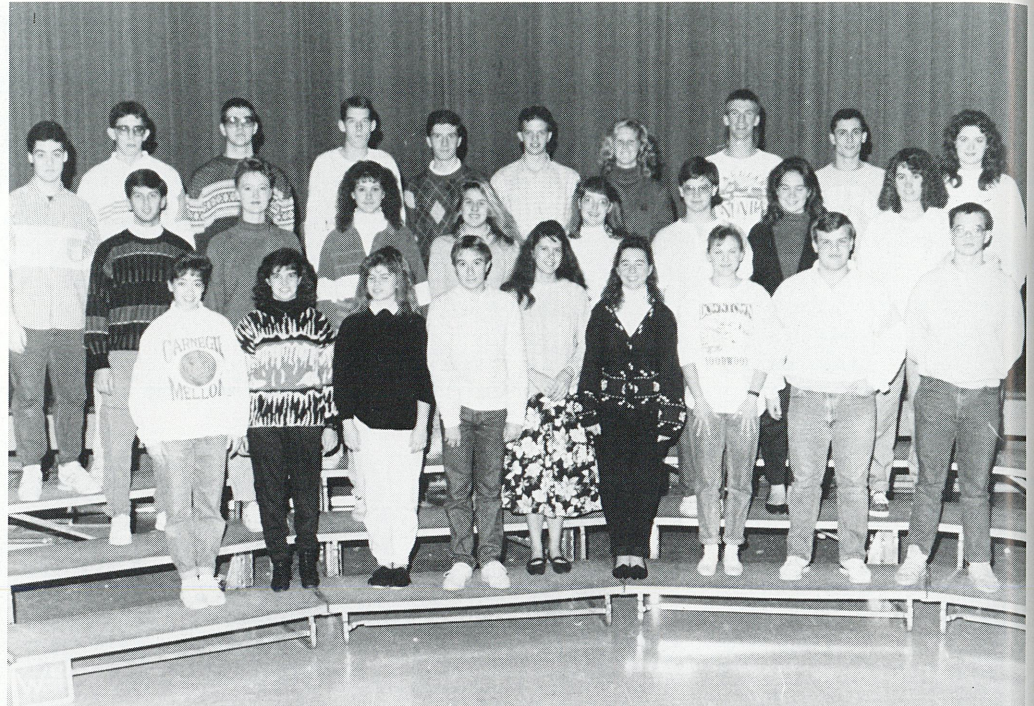

Every morning the math club meets to tutor students in all types of mathematics. When they cannot assist in solving a problem Ms. Catherine Scales comes to the rescue. The club takes pride in the valuable services they provide.

Math Team

For those advanced in mathematics the math team is in existence. Meets are held regularly so that these students are able to apply their abilities and extend their skills. It brings an opportunity to show their superior understanding of a complex subject. The team competes in two leagues: Strong- and in which they hold first place, and Math Council of Western Pennsylvania where they are in the third place of their section.

Thought For The Day

Every morning in homeroom students were greeted with a thought full of wisdom and humor. Members of the Thought for the Day Club are responsible for these cheerful statements. The club, sponsored by Max Isreal, is made up of several students who help to get the day started right.

Mock Trial

The Mock Trial team, which has been successfully debating cases for three years, shows off the style of Kiski. The team consists of three lawyers and two witnesses who compete in front of a judge and jury. They have competed in two county competitions-Hempfield and Latrobe. They attribute much of their success to their sponsor Mr. Norton, and lawyer advisors Mr. Geary and Mr. Little. The Kiski Area Mock Trial Team will be a defending champion in the 90's.

Students For Safety

Y.T.S.C.

Y.T.S.C. is supervised by Mr. Woitas. Members labored to expose the hazards of drinking and driving, and to inform students and faculty of the benefits of "buckling up". This was accomplished by surveys taken of drivers at the school who do not participate in the seatbelt law.

Kari Arndt is only one of the concerned students that take part in YTSC.

S.A.D.D.

Striving to promote their cause, member of Students Against Driving Drunk used various ways to get the message across. Fund raisers were sponsored to encourage an assembly at prom time. Some participated in a S.A.D.D. convention at Apollo-Ridge in March. In addition, awareness signs were posted and flyers circulated at the telethon.

Programs Of Opportunity

Computer Club

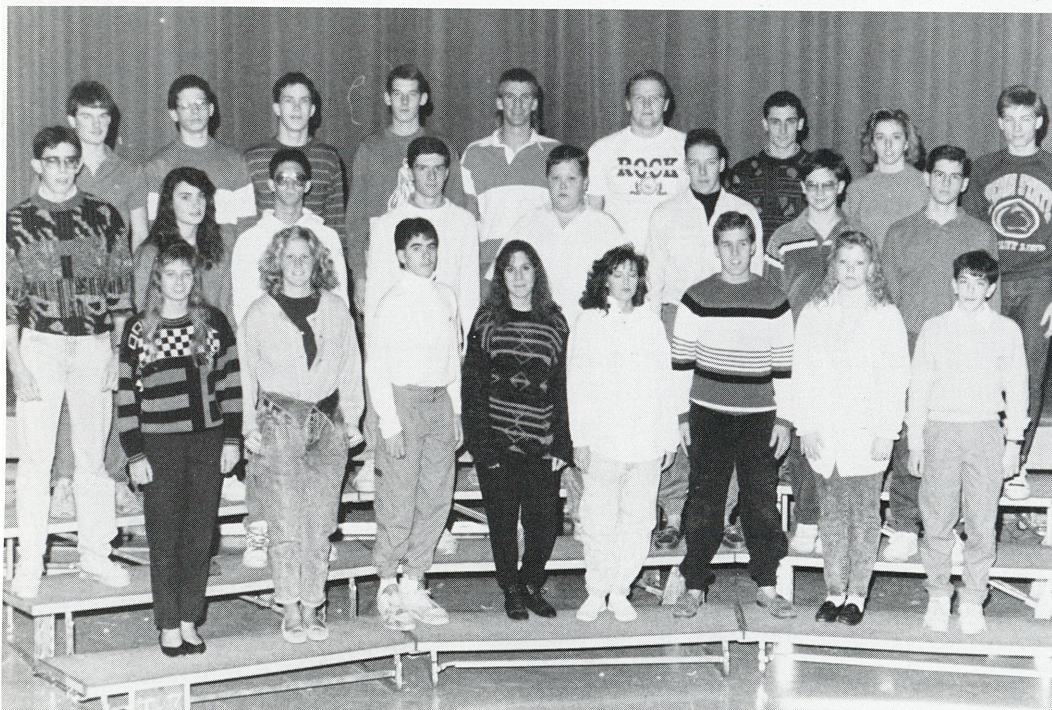

Our future holds many things in store, and one is the quality of advanced technology. The computer club teaches both amateur and experienced hackers new and different facets of the machine. Logo, a graphics system, was their major project for the year. It also provides added time for those computer students to accomplish their work.

Chess Club

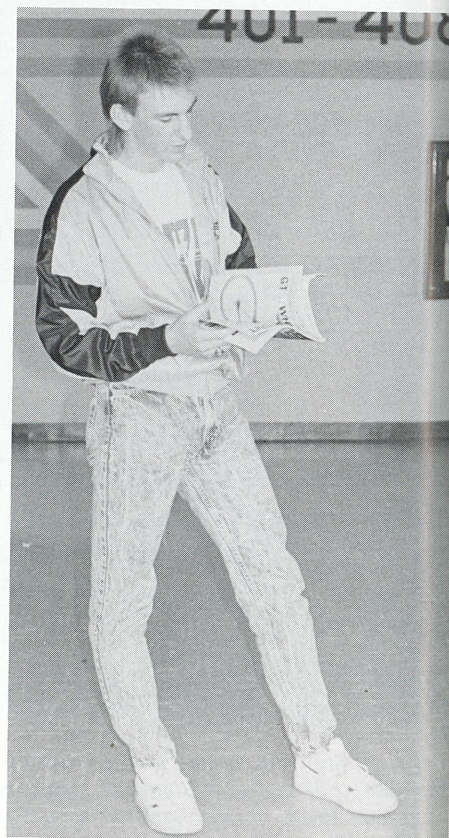

Patience and skill are what it takes to be a part of the Chess Club. Members meet every Wednesday to compete against one another. Mr. Bar-sic assisted the students to develop their own personal strategies and to learn to manipulate the chess board.

A.V.

Sponsored by Mr. Stauffer, the A-V Club is one of the most important clubs at Kiski. Without their endless help, teachers would have a difficult time obtaining TV's, VCR's, and overhead projectors. The club taped the telethon, as well as various other events, and their help is greatly appreciated.

Equipment found in the AV room waits to be distributed throughout the school.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America is sponsored by Mrs. Wilson. Preparations for living and working efficiently in our society today is one of the clubs goals. Members learn to create their own fashions as well as clothing techniques.

Some Achieve Greatness

Key Club

The Key Club, advised by Max Israel, is an organization sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club. To be a member one must be a junior or senior boy with a specific grade average. Involving itself in many activities such as fund drives for the Salvation Army during the Christmas season, the Key Club is an asset to Kiski and the community.

Base For Which G

The 1989 baseball team, under the direction of Dave Guinta and Jack Jewart, ended its season with four wins and nine losses. Led by a group of enthusiastic and zealous seniors, the underclassmen began working together to better understand the techniques of the game. Guidance and team spirit helped the baseball team to be triumphant. Their goals for next year are to win the play-offs and their section. Bob Bucci, now a senior member of the team, feels that "if the team plays together, we should go a long way."

Coach's Corner

"The season, in making the playoffs, was a success; however, we learned that talent alone isn't enough."

- Mr. James Trunzo

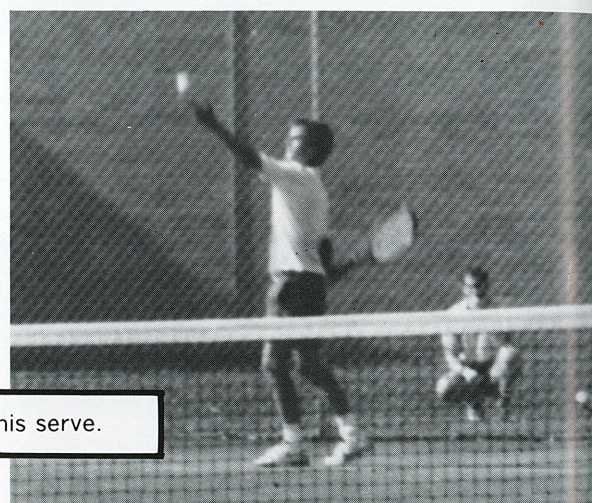

Last spring the tennis team had an excellent season. Coach, Mr. Louis Santia, said that "everyone is returning, so we already have two or three years of experience." Obviously the team had been preparing for their step into the 90's. Positive attitudes, great strength and skill in addition to the experience gave the team potential for a very rewarding season.

With a 13-4-0 record, Kiski's Golf team has certainly developed over the past few years. Albert Veselicky, the coach, enjoyed watching the team as they transformed into a healthy, intelligent unit. At tournaments the players feel confident because of their many long, hard practices. Mr. Veselicky feels that his moral support at the games is a very important factor. He is proud of all their victories.

Coach's Corner

"Our season was as successful as we could have hoped for."

-Mr. Veselicky

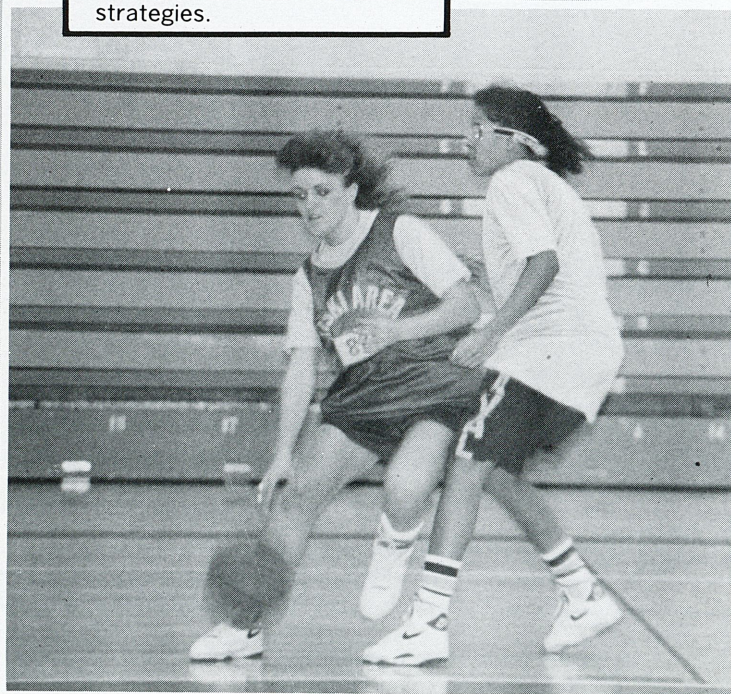

That's The Way

Our Lady Cavs stepped into the 90's with several victories on the court. A combination of ability and seniority improved the team tremendously. Plus, the wide variety of stable players in the line up definitely gave support. In view of the team, Coach Thomas Pipkins said, "I've had some outstanding individual players before but this is the best team."

Coach's Corner

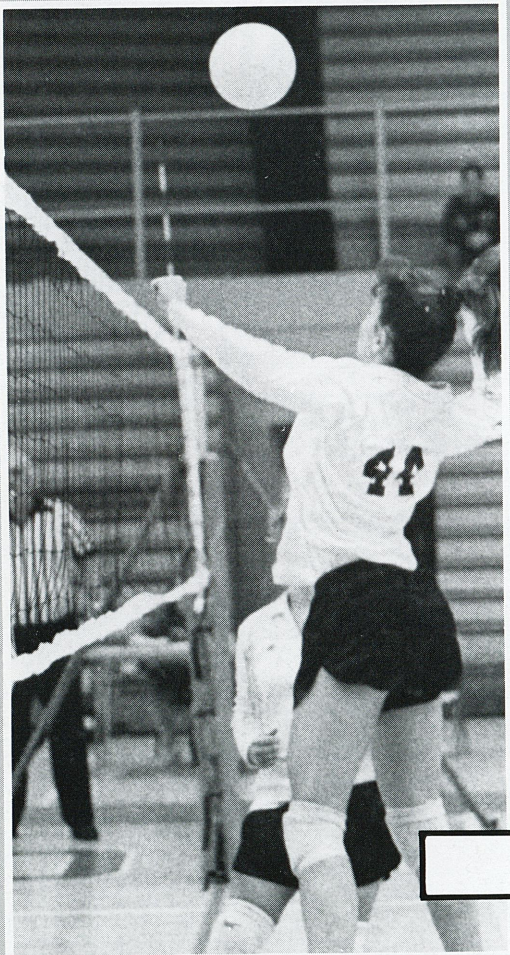

"We had a good crop of juniors and sophomores, and our goal is to win the section next year."

- Mr. Tom Pipkins

The volleyball team ended their season by placing second in their section, with 14 wins and 2 losses. Coaches, Linda Chicka and Jim Allison, helped the team members stick together and fight to win. Before every game, the girls gathered in a group for a prayer and a cheer. As junior varsity member Stacey Kardos comments, "It was an excellent season; we only had two losses."

Stacie Molnar struggles to keep up with her opponent.

Kiski Area has had many successful cross country teams in the past and this year was no exception. Beginning in August with exhausting workouts and strenuous runs, the team was well prepared, and their record proved it. The Cavs had a record of 8 wins, 2 losses, and they placed second in their section. With a record of 6 wins and 2 losses, the Lady Cavs attained co-championship of their section. Dave Sampson, boys captain, felt that "part of the teams success was a result of the friendships that were made."

A cross country member competes against a Franklin opponent.

Coach's Corner

"Both teams were young, but they were lucky to have very good senior leadership which taught them hard work. With a lot of desire, good things will happen."

- Mr. George Argyros

Both the boys and girls soccer teams showed improvement from last year. The players possessed dexterity, confidence, and ambition. After vigorous work-outs with numerous hours of conditioning and all-day practices, both teams were ready to execute their new skills. Overall, the teams exhibited great determination. Most players agreed that inexperience was their greatest hindrance. However, as Shane Filer, a junior soccer player stated, "Now that we have soccer in junior high, we'll have more experienced players and won't have to spend as much time on practicing basic skills." The future looks very promising for the teams and coaches of KA's soccer team.

Could these be soccer feet?

The soccer team practices to be the best.

Coach's Corner

"If you want to be a good team you have to compete with other good teams."

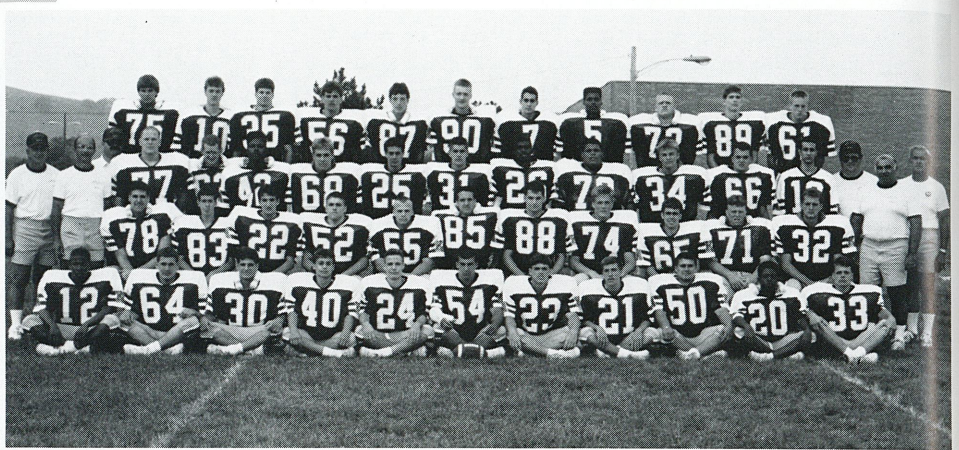

-Mr. Adel Heder

Survival Of

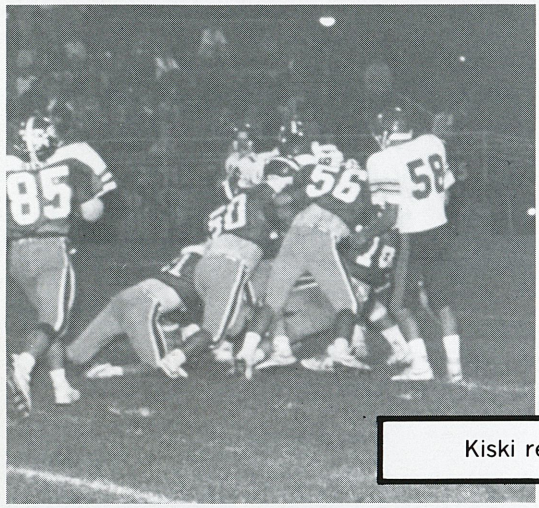

The 1989 Kiski Cavalier Football team brought pride back to Kiski. A record of 6 wins and 4 losses ended an excellent season under the eminent coaching abilities of Mr. Richard Dilts and his staff.

Although the varsity team had some problems during pre-season, the guys got back on the ball with their first win against Fox Chapel. As the season progressed pride returned and pep rallies provided our Cavs with the psyche they needed to make WPIAL Section II, AAA Co-Champions.

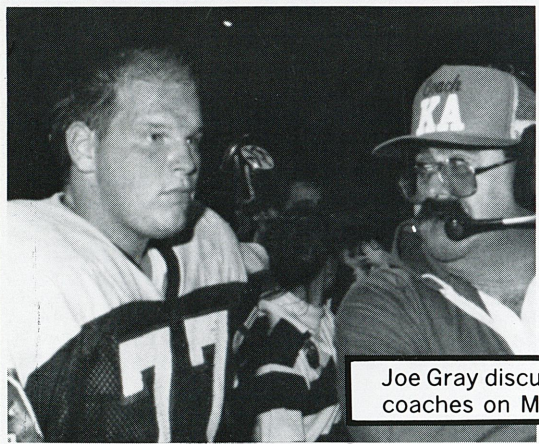

Captains Joe Gray and Scott Wilson, agreed that during this past season, the team was a dominant force.

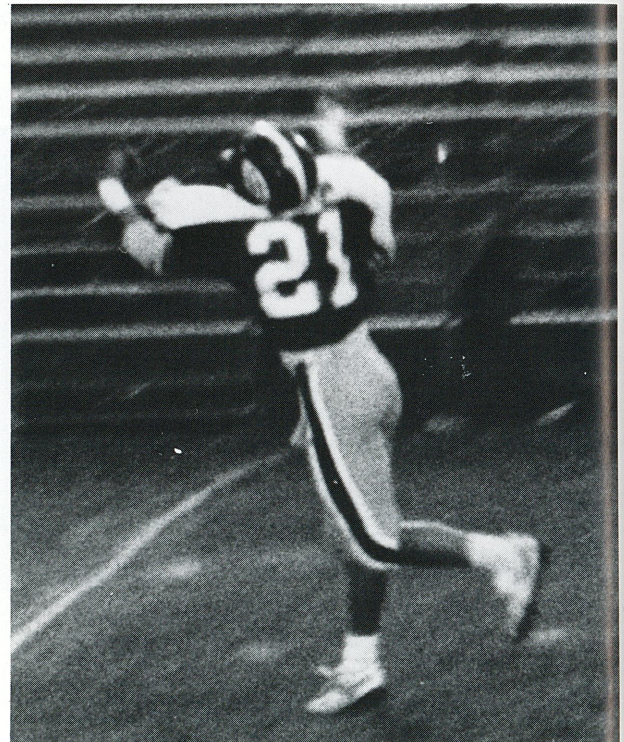

Front Row: B. Mills, T. Bechtold, D. Carbonetti, C. Frederick, T. Parks, C. Hepler, M. Brink, R. Walton, J. Hanford, L. Hartsfield, B. Walker 2nd Row: M. DeSantis, B. Gourley, E. Garrison, J. John Andrews runs for the touchdown.

Scott Wilson charges down the field.

Coach's Corner

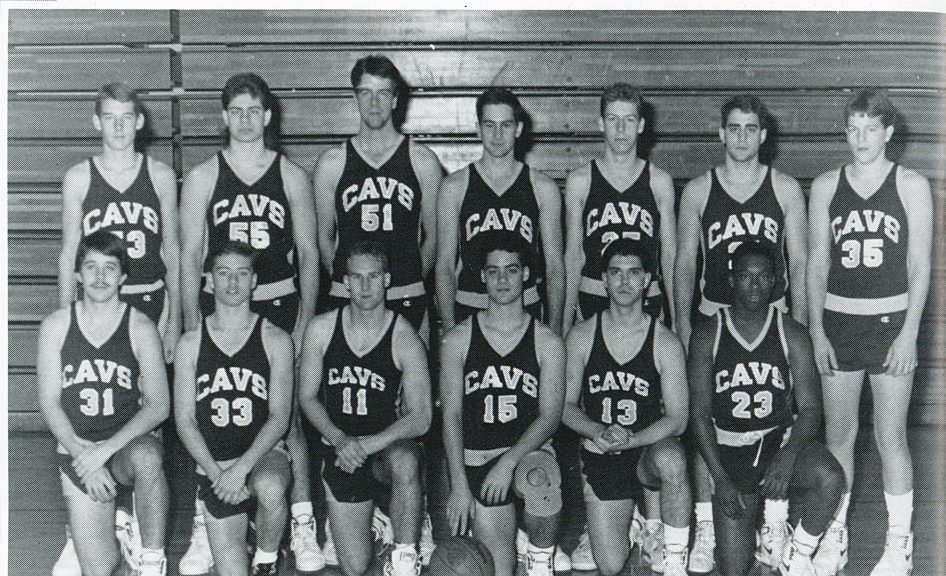

"It was a very memorable year from the first practice, clear down to the last play at the championship. I'm very proud of them."

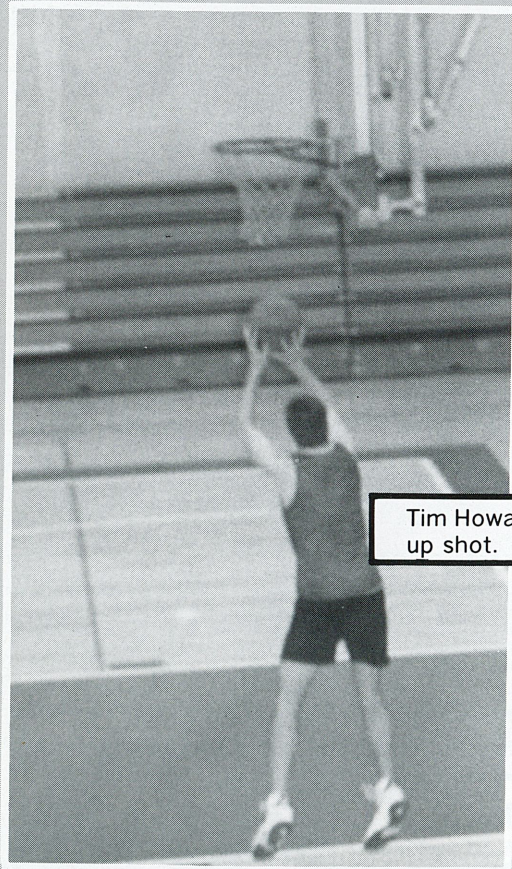

-Mr. Richard Dilts

Best Way Out Is

Coach Sam Intrieri really got the K.A. boys basketball team moving. A promising record overall gave them hope for the section title. "I believe we have the best balance and the most depth of any team in the section," said Mr. Intrieri. Strong players, social teamwork, and a great defense put points on the board.

Front Row: Eric Poydence, Scott Woodward, Nathan Bartha, Marshall Barclay, Brandon Wilson, Tyrone Polke; Back Row: Gavin Musselman, Patrick Kuruc, Freddy Nabors, Tim Howard, Steve Smietana, Chris Recchia, Danny Guy.

Coach's Corner

"It was a good season because the kids worked very hard."

- Mr. Sam Intrieri

A Stroke

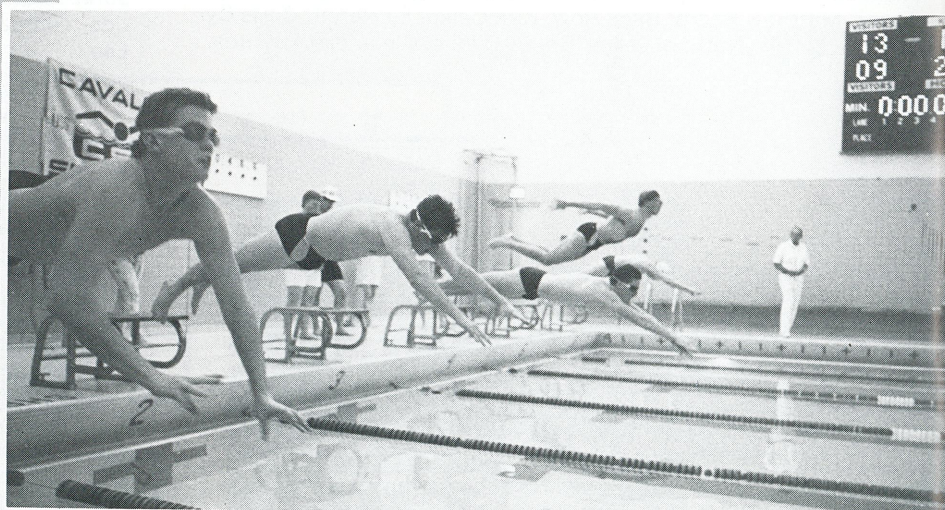

The swim team splashed their way into the 90's! Under the supervision of Chris Triolo, the boys and girls of Kiski's waters practiced many grueling hours. This greatly enhanced their strength, talent, and confidence. During meets, these qualities shined through. Ed Hartman, a freshman, felt that "team unity was the biggest aspect."

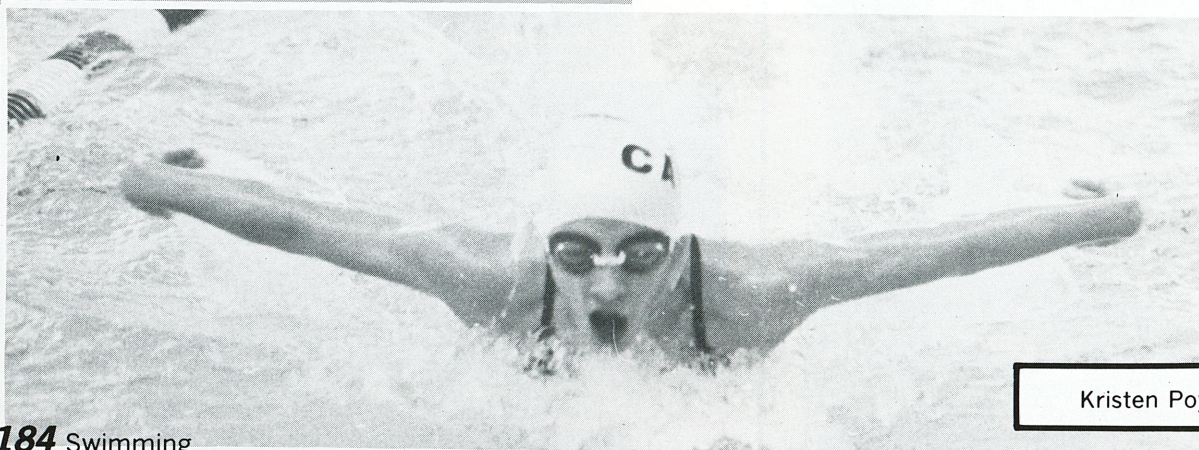

Front Row: Annie Armitage, Diane Kowaluk, Jennifer Fetterman, Michelle Lowers, Tessie Zamalis, Jamie Lowers, Tammie Brechbill, Lynn Yamber; Row 2: Coach Chrissy Troilo, Coach Todd Sterlitz; Row 3: Kristen Thimans, Hollie Walters, Dana Lace, Cindy Vakulick, Marla Pavelek, Barb Powell, Amy Bazella, Stacy Pavetti; Back Row: Susan Armitage, Kim Kiebler, Kristen Poydence, Jennifer Litterini, Missy Suhadolnik, Kara Klobucar, Sue Lamont, Brenda Bazella, Melissa Troup

Susie Armitage stretches before a meet.

Coach's Corner

"A year of pleasant surprises."

-Chrissy Triolo

Wrestling Strengthens

Concentration, positive attitudes, and old rivalries helped the 1989 wrestling team thrash their opponents. Coach Tursky, in his fourth year at Kiski, has improved the team both physically and mentally. Everyday after school the team could be found in the auxiliary gym working vigorously. Psyching themselves up for matches was only half of the battle for the Cav wrestlers. Throughout the season and even in the summer, these athletes trained by weightlifting, distance running, and endurance running. The standard of excellence set by this group of athletes will no doubt be kept in the years to come with tradition and dedication.

The Northern Westmoreland Vocational Technical School is located in New Kensington. Courses offered range from Food Service and Auto Body to Medical Assistant and Commercial Art. Approximately forty-five students attend from Kiski in conjunction with three other schools. Advantages provided are, on the job training, assistance in job placement, preparation for more schooling and excellent facilities. Rex Klingensmith, senior, says, "It was very beneficial to my future."

Jason Cribbs works in the autobody shop at the Vo-Tech School.

Jason Fish waits as the cooling stage of his project is completed.

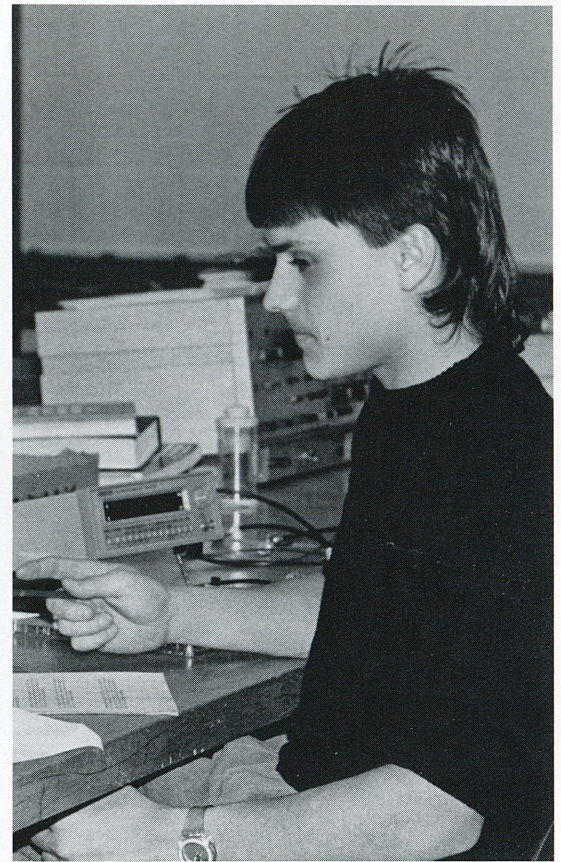

Scott Shannon learns the technique of running complex machinery.

While working, Jerry Hepler refers to the manual.

John Cunningham contemplates a difficult assignment.

Frank Matarrese examines his monitor.

Brick laying is not an easy job, as Rich Swetof learns.

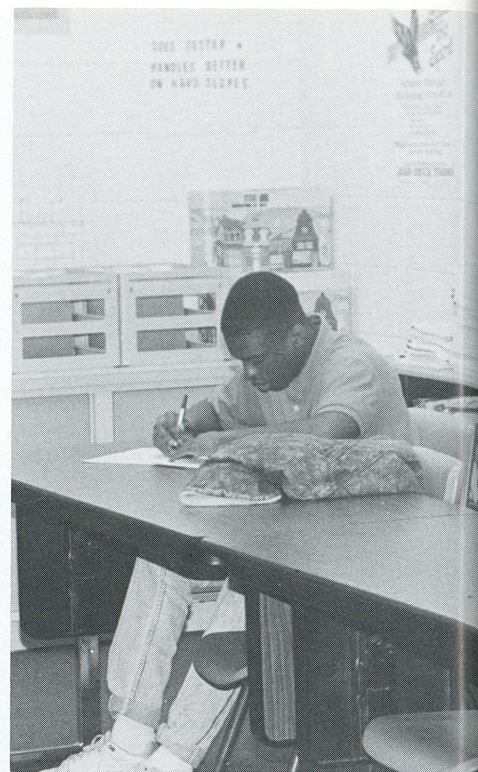

Sal Spina works with medical equipment.

Some future beauticians learn about the most modern hairstyles.

Cindy Hamilton practices hospital corners.

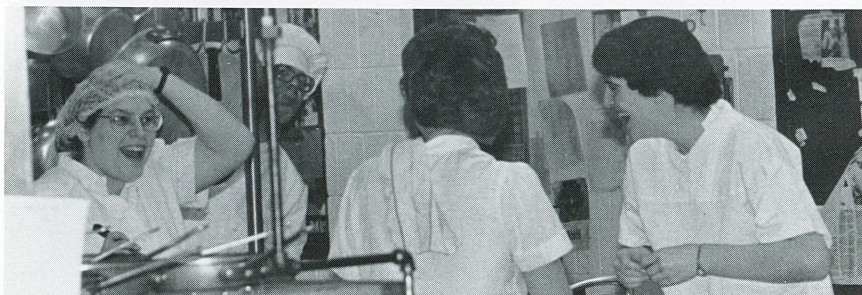

Tyrone Polk studies for a difficult examination.

Kenny Conner is learning to solder metal.

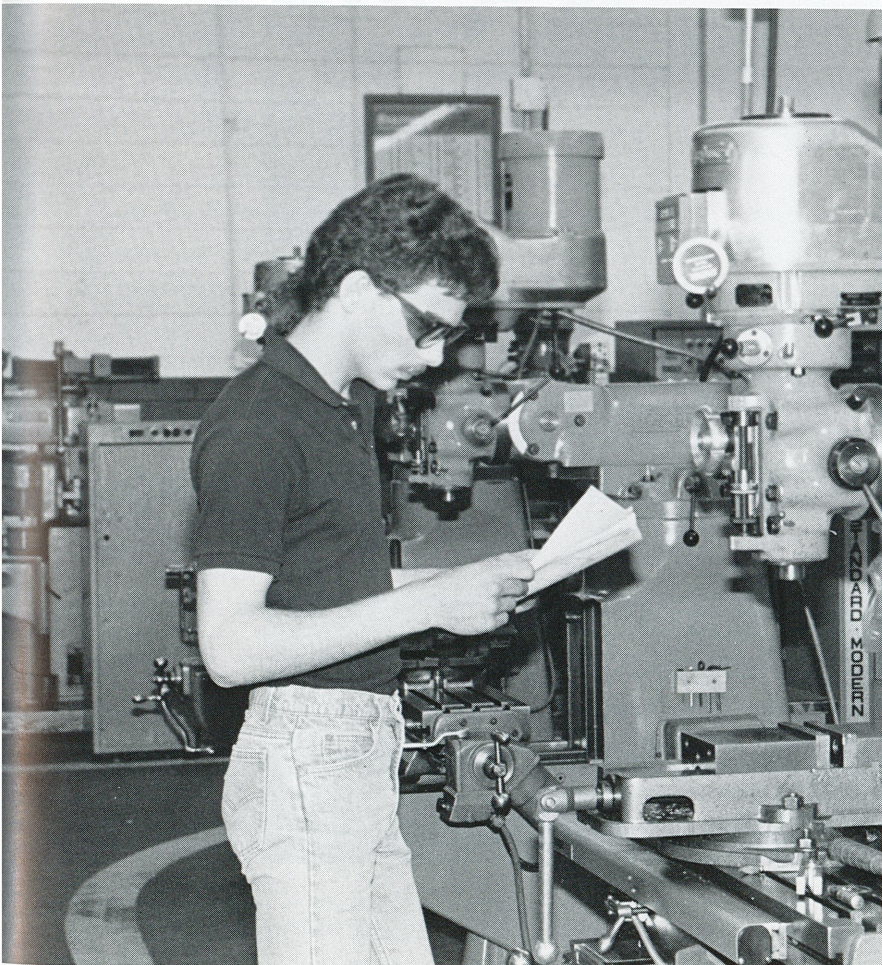

Roberta Hesketh creates an icing rose.

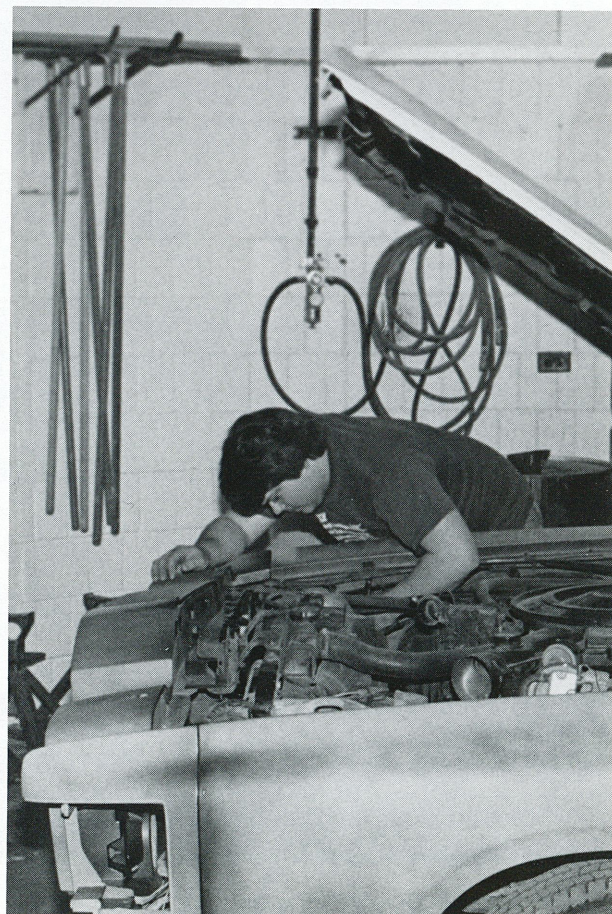

Lesli Trombi works on her word processing ability.

GOOD LUCK SENIORS!

KISKI AREA ALMA MATER

*Hail to thee, O Kiski High we pledge allegiance true,
May your colors be remembered, gold, the white and navy blue.*

As the students of this high school we will always sing thy praise,

Loud and clearly hear our voices telling of our high school days.

*As the graduating class we promise to uphold
All the standards and ideals, that we'll never let grow old.
Time has come for us to leave now, loving sadness fills our hearts.*

*Slowly now we turn away, sad but proudly we depart,
Thru thy friendly halls we pass, thinking not of what's to be,
Knowing not in years to follow, many thoughts will turn to thee.*

In thy buildings memories linger, happy thoughts of days gone by,

Days we'd like to live all over, days at dear old Kiski High.

The Odd Couple

The entire cast of "The Odd Couple: Female Version" receives a great round of applause from their tentative audience.

Tracy McCoy and Nicole Van Den Heuvel were the leading characters in the play.

Olive and Flo greeted their guests with hors d'oeuvres.

Flo comes to Olive's to play a friendly game of trivial pursuit.

Mike Butler, Tracy McCoy, and Shawn Rose display excellent dramatic ability.

In early December the Drama Club presented a female version of a hit television series, "The Odd Couple." It took many weeks of painstaking preparation to have everything just so for opening night. As a result, the play, a heartwarming and humorous view of the lives of two women in the city, was a huge triumph. Ms. Regina Wichrowski, cast, and the numerous crews can certainly be proud of their achievement.

Members of the play sit down to play trivial pursuit.

Thanks To All Teachers

The most important factor at Kiski is definitely the faculty. Their hard work and determination help to make the students into better leaders and adults. Without their devotion the future of all the Kiski students would be much dimmer.

Working at the board once again, Ms. Scales explains the the goodies to the class.

Ms. Manganello demonstrates her typing skills to an interested class.

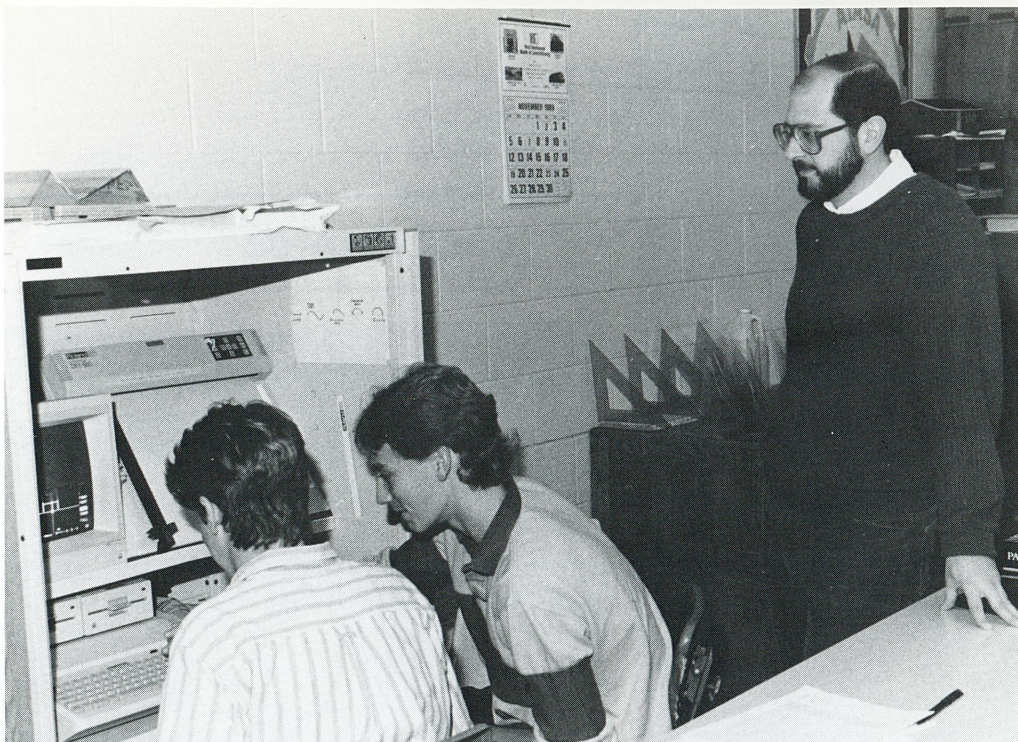

Mrs. Musselman demands the attention of a freshmen class.

Caught off guard, Mr. Israel smiles willingly at a staff photographer.

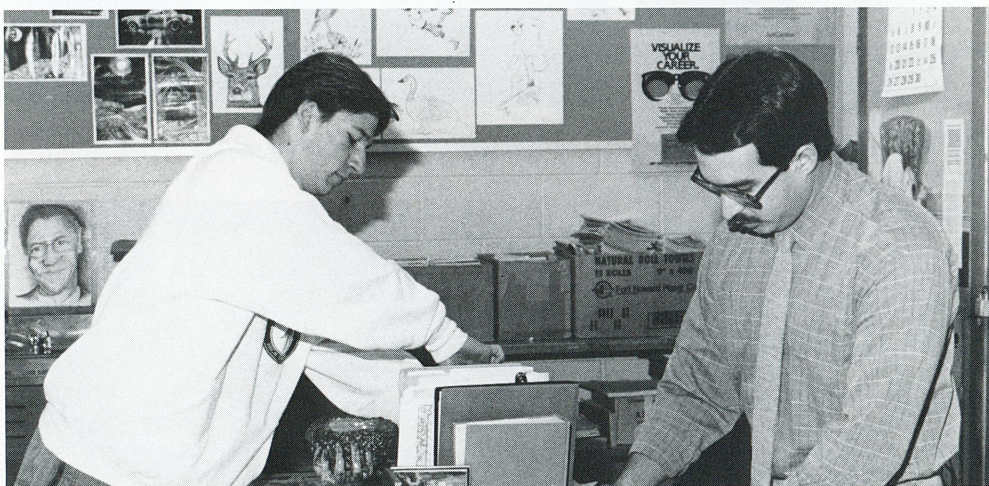

Mrs. Gwillim selects a transparency to aide in the teaching of her students.

Mr. Best helps two students use the new computer system in the drafting room.

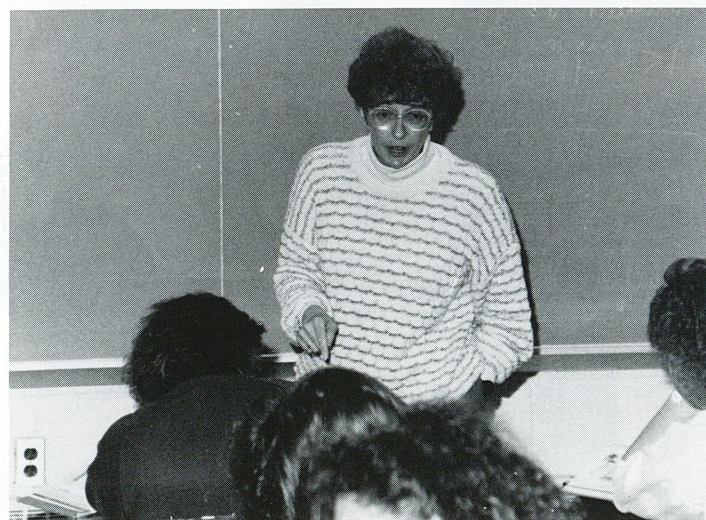

If there is any trouble in the hall, Mr. Daugherty will be sure to correct it.

Mr. Jewart encourages Jack Hewett to keep up his artistic abilities.

German is a difficult language to learn, isn't it Mr. Pipkins?

Mrs. Desantis gets her point across to the students.

Ms. Herbeck flashes her enthusiastic smile.
